As we discussed Friday, Ed would like an intro to Joe Schmitz. Ed hit the ground running today with the Weaponization Task Force… have a feeling there is a LOT you three can get done.

Perhaps we can find a time later this week or early next week to all hop on a call to discuss the proposed ATF DEA merger? We'd love to discuss deleting the illegal registry too at some point, but it seems like the merger is the more immediately avoidable issue.

Looking forward to talking! Just let us know when works for you.

Ed -

Please meet some incredible guys and very important stakeholders - Erich Pratt and Aidan Johnston from Gun Owners of America.

Erich and Aidan - there are not sufficient words to describe the passion, intelligence and savvy of my dear friend Ed Martin. Ed now runs the Weaponization Task Force and Pardons Office at DOJ.

Ed is tired of me HOUNDING him about the ATF gun owner data base - Ed these gentlemen and Congressman Flood are the ones who educated me about the injustice happening at ATF.

Recently on a call Erich and Aidan were telling me about the persecutions of Gun Owners during the last 4 years. I thought of you and the task force immediately!

They do not like the idea of combining ATF and DEA - can you help with getting the right person in the DAGs office to discuss? They have agreed to hold on publicizing a memo re their discontent while they focus on educating DOJ and of course the arguably more Important issue of justice for persecuted gun owners.

Sorry guys it took a few days to get this sent - I am in catch up mode today!!

Enjoy -
Katie

Sir

Really appreciate you meeting with Aidan and me on Friday, it was a pleasure. We're currently working on the writeups we discussed, including one explaining in broad strokes the Biden era weaponization against gun owners. We hope to have something to you early this week.

We would be privileged to meet with the DAG, and will do our best to make ourselves available at your convenience.

Best,

Dear Mr. Martin,

I hope you are doing well. This is my third follow up email to you after receiving your X app DM reply providing me with your email address. Below, I am including my first email to you for your reference, as that email provides a clear initial account of the matter that I am hoping to bring to your attention. I know that you are incredibly busy Sir, performing mulitple jobs simultaneously; so you have no idea how grateful I would be, if either you or your staff would please be so kind as to read this message.

If you or your staff have read my previous emails, then you will know that I have a previous felony conviction, dating from September 6th or 7th of 2006, for a nasty letter I wrote to George W Bush, but sent by certified mail, return receipt to the US Secret Service Media Office. I had mailed that letter sometime around the Saturday of Presidents' Day weekend in February of 2006, and I was picked up by the Secret Service in the Library of Congress Jefferson Reading Room on the morning of March 13, 2006. I have literally spent many years of my life reading in the LOC.

That is pretty much the whole story, Mr. Martin, but of course there are many more details. Please let me know if you would like any clarification or any additional details.

A Presidential pardon would be fantastic, but its not as if anyone would hire me now, even if I got one, due to the fact that I am already 62 years old, and age discrimination in hiring is so prevalent, even if it is legally prohibited.

Good morning, Ed,

Neil told me you would like a more regular briefing on any communication I have with ODAG staff. I assume that includes the 925c working group meeting.

As you know, there was a working group meeting on Monday, Sept. 17. Jackie attended in my absence, but I was able to view the meeting remotely. I discussed with you on Tuesday the highest priority item of updating recommended 925(c) recommendations with one additional investigation we have completed. You approved the recommendation and were copied on my email transmitting that recommendation.

The meeting agenda included several items of note:

1. OLA and OGC spoke regarding the statutory language they are trying to (b) (5) OGC and OLA intend to reach out to me to discuss some language regarding (b) (5) I have not had follow up discussions with them yet.
2. Jackie noted several items you had specifically asked us to raise:
   a. (b) (5)
   b. (b) (5)
   c. (b) (5). This discussion was folded into OLA and OGC's presentation. As mentioned, (b) (5)
3. Jackie also noted three additional items we had flagged:
   a. Minor line edits to the rule to capture typos, new fingerprint card numbers, and an update on the number of comments received. There were no concerns.

b. (b) (5) Robust discussion was had, but no conclusion was reached, and our takeaway was to contemplate further (b) (5)

c. (b) (5)

4. We will be asked to prepare agenda items for the following meeting on 9/29. Those are likely to include:
   a. More fulsome discussion of (b) (5)
   b. Whether (b) (5)
   c. A new demonstration of the application with previous changes and working group concerns noted.
   d. (b) (5).

I will brief this again on Monday, as initially intended.

I pray that God is keeping my messages to you in your heart so that when the time is right you can look over what I am sending you. I have forwarded an email, one of many, that my husband received, along with threatening phone calls, so that you can see the kind of man my husband is.
I have also attached his resume so that you can see the wonderful career, and legacy he built, before these woke prosecutors destroyed it. There is a plague in our society that has infiltrated judiciary and law enforcement with the objective of eradicating anyone not conforming to ideology.
These prosecutors stated in open documents that they had "anecdotal evidence" of prior police brutality and misconduct on my husband's part. They did this knowing that the media was reporting on it. Later conceding that it was not something substantiated and was social media gossip. They know that it doesn't have to be true, it is just as harmful.
ALL charges were dismissed with prejudice but it did not stop the Assistant Deputy Attorney General John Skidmore from giving a press statement that my husband would never work in law enforcement anywhere again. He has NO legal authority to say that but he did for the purpose of reputational harm.
I know that you have been attacked physically and reputationally, and are still being attacked. You are fortunate to have President Trump and his support to keep fighting this corruption.

God is fighting for us!

You are the reason law enforcement has a bad name. You should probably just retire and save yourself and your family the embarrassment.. luckily for us the Internet never forgets and a simple Google search of your name will always reveal your true colors.. an entitled hothead who thinks he’s above the law.

Good morning General Martin,
I know you are extremely busy, and I tried to leave a message for you this morning but it was cut off.

I'm following up on my email below. I wanted to know if your office has sent preservation notices to the school district, its law firm/solicitor and the Pennsylvania Department of Education?

As noted below, after you sent your letter to me last week, the new school district superintendent reached out to me and requested a meeting. This is the first time in 5 years that any school official has asked to meet with me, so naturally I believe it is in response to your investigation and an attempt to mitigate liability.

I intend to decline the meeting and allow your investigation to proceed in due course, but before I respond I wanted to know if preservation notices have been sent. If you could please let me know either way, I would greatly appreciate it.

Thank you, and have a great day.

General Martin –
I hope you had a nice weekend. I am writing to alert you to an email I received from the new superintendent of the Unionville-Chadds Ford School District, [redacted], last night (Sunday, September 21) requesting a meeting. The timing of the email is interesting, given the attached article that was published this morning by Pennsylvania news site Broad + Liberty. The reporter contacted [redacted] for comment last week and the school district declined.

Federal probe launched into Unionville-Chadds Ford School District after parent complaints

I have attached two emails: (1) the email from [redacted] last night requesting a meeting, and (2) my email exchange with the chair of the Board's policy committee regarding amendments that were later unanimously adopted by the Board. Those amendments removed the due process protections that I asserted in my September 2023 complaint to the school board (which I was denied) and were orchestrated by the former superintendent (who later resigned), the former school board president and the district's lawyers (who are implicated in the misconduct and violations of law detailed in my pending federal complaints).

As you will see, my attached February 2025 complaint details the due process violations and the retaliation by the former superintendent, solicitor and certain board members. This is just one example of the record I have established in connection with the violation of my parental and constitutional rights.

I respectfully request that you include these documents in the file for this matter. If possible, it would also be helpful if your office could let me know whether it would be appropriate for me to meet with the superintendent as he requested. I'm not sure whether your office sent the school district formal notice of your inquiry and a direction to preserve records, so I wanted to clear this with you first.

Thank you.

Respectfully,

Chad Williams

I have been told through Cynthia Hughes that you might be able to meet with me to discuss the OneTaste matter and some other cases that involve weaponization on which your office has already been briefed (the Bowman/Robson matter, Julian Omidi, and Adriana Camberos). I've also been working with Brian Kolfage and the BOP to change his parole requirements and make them less onerous for him; I can fill you in on those efforts.

It looks like I won't be back in DC until next Monday, 9/15. If you have some time then to meet, it would be great to talk to you about OneTaste and a few other weaponization matters that I think you would be interested.

Thanks for any time you have. Really appreciate it.

Neil: Thank you for taking the time to review. Here is what was filed for compassionate release, as well as, some salient facts. (I'm sure you know some of this. This was written for a third party.)

-Adam

- In April 2023, Brian Kolfage was sentenced to 51 months in prison. He is currently serving his sentence at FMC Rochester. His scheduled release date is June 19, 2026. He pled guilty to conspiracy to commit wire fraud. (b) (6) Kolfage was the founder of We Build the Wall ("WBTW").

- On May 6, 2025, the BOP filed a motion to reduce Kolfage's sentence. See first PDF. The motion, and Kolfage's attorney's follow-up letter (also attached) details Kolfage's declining medical condition and the BOP's inability to care for Kolfage because he needs around the clock care. (b) (6) Instead of granting or ruling on the motion, Judge Torres asked for more information as to why Mr. Kolfage was "move out of the hospital portion of the building in which he is imprisoned." The BOP never publicly responded by the Court-imposed deadline, leaving Mr. Kolfage waiting.

- His alleged co-conspirator-- Andrew Badolato-- a venture capitalist who acted as the CFO of WBTW-- also pled guilty to one count of conspiracy to commit wire fraud. He received a sentence of 36 months in April 2023. He was released from BOP custody on March 14, 2025 (serving less than two years of the three-year sentence) and prior to that was in a halfway house for several months. Timothy Shea-- a third individual charged in connection with WBTW--went to trial and received a sentence of 63 months of incarceration. Steve received a full pardon from the President.

- The indictment alleges a conspiracy to defraud donors to WBTW, which was a crowdfunding campaign to privately build the border wall at the Southern border. The allegations stem from a statement Kolfage made where he said 100 percent of the WBTW donations were being used for the charity. He was not a sophisticated businessman or adept at non-profit law. He took a salary, which the government said ran afoul of this statement.

Please let me know if you need any additional information.

Thanks,
Adam

Dear Mr. Martin,

I am writing to follow up on my application for the above referenced position. I was advised by Ms. Tamara Shelton (JMD/HR Operations) that the application was with the Hiring Manager and interviews were being scheduled. Recognizing the busyness of your schedule and that of your office colleagues, I simply wanted to reach out and see if there was anything additional your office needed from me relative to the application process.

I've included here for your convenience my resume and the cover letter I submitted with my application. I thought it might be useful for you, too, if I provided a quick summary of my career:

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Meeting request

Ed.
Congratulations on all that you are doing to move the Country forward! As someone who had worked as an AUSA and then Virginia Attorney General, your work in getting DC more safe and now your work at DOJ is appreciated.

I would welcome the chance to meet with you to further understand your expectations when it comes to commutations or pardons.

Let me know if this might be a possibility. Thank you for your consideration.

Dear Mr. Martin,

Please find a pardon request for Mr. William Tierney, who was the victim of a politically motivated prosecution, has served his entire sentence, and is a pillar in his community. Mr. Tierney welcomes the opportunity to meet with you and your team and to provide any additional information that would aid in the decision-making process.

Thank you very much for your consideration.

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Pardon of Trump Electors and Supporters

Ed - I know that you have been working on a pardons memo outlining how and why President Trump can and should issue pardons to all of the Trump electors, attorneys, and supporters indicted by Democrat state attorneys general in Nevada, Arizona, Michigan, and Wisconsin and the Democrat District Attorney Fani Willis in Fulton County, GA.

I wanted to reach out to urge the Department of Justice to move forward now with the pardons because of the particular posture of each of these cases.
To date, none of the cases have gone to trial and the proceedings are in varying degrees of procedural status. However, time is of the essence to issue the pardons as soon as possible before any of these cases move forward to trial. If trials (and in the Michigan case, an appeal of the dismissal) are allowed to occur, the additional financial and emotional costs to these loyal Trump supporters will be enormous.

Georgia: On September 16, 2025, the Georgia Supreme Court refused to hear the appeal of the decision by the Georgia Court of Appeals disqualifying Fani Willis and her entire staff from prosecuting the case against President Trump and his electors, attorneys, and supporters. As a result, the future of the case rests with the Prosecuting Attorneys Council (the "Council") that must identify a new prosecutor to continue the case. If the pardons are issued promptly, before a new prosecutor is appointed, the Council can move for dismissal of the only remaining charges in the case, being the charges against President Trump.

Nevada: In May 2024, the judge dismissed the AG's case against the Trump electors on jurisdictional grounds related to improper venue. The dismissal was appealed by the Attorney General and the Nevada Supreme Court heard arguments in the appeal last month. Additionally, the Democrat AG filed new criminal charges against the Trump electors in December 2024, in a different venue, just before the expiration of the statute of limitations. That case is also pending. The pardons should be issued now, before the new case goes to trial or the original case is reinstated by the state Supreme Court.

Arizona: In May 2025, the judge returned to the grand jury the case against the Trump electors, counsel and supporters because the indictment does not address the Electoral Count Act (a federal statute), relied upon by several of the defendants as grounds for dismissal of the charges against them. The case has yet to be returned from the grand jury. Issuance of the pardons before further grand jury proceedings would be optimum to stop the persecution of these defendants, which include two of Charlie Kirk's top lieutenants at TPUSA.

Michigan: The judge presiding over the Michigan case against the 15 Trump electors dismissed all charges against them on September 9, 2025, ruling that no crime had been committed, that the defendants were exercising their civic duty and First Amendment rights. Yesterday, the Democrat Attorney General who brought the indictments announced that she is seriously considering appealing the decision. That will mean more briefing and legal expenses for the defendants. Expeditious issuances of the pardons is crucial to stop a possible reinstatement of the case and further proceedings against the Trump electors.

Wisconsin: In August 2025, the judge presiding over the case brought by the Democrat Attorney General against three Trump supporters - two Trump campaign attorneys and a campaign aide - refused to grant the motion to dismiss the charges. The case is now in a posture to proceed to trial. Issuance of the pardons will protect the defendants from further financial and emotional duress. Some of them have already spent their retirement funds, mortgaged their homes to pay legal fees, and suffered significant emotional hardship over the past four years. Allowing a trial to proceed is simply unacceptable.

In short, it is essential that the pardons move forward as quickly as possible before trials are scheduled and before these defendants are subjected to further expense and mental anguish.

Please let me know what else I can do to help get this done.

Hi Neil,

The USAO initially filed a response taking the position that the KY firearms offense was outside the scope the plain language of the Presidential proclamation (attached). The court held:

MINUTE ORDER as to DAN EDWIN WILSON (1). Upon consideration of the government's 103 Response to the Court's Minute Order Dated February 3, 2025 and the defendant's 104 Reply, the Court finds that the plain language of the President's January 20, 2025 pardon does not extend to the defendant's Western District of Kentucky firearm convictions: Possession of a Firearm by a Prohibited Person, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 922(g)(1) & 924(a)(2), and Possession of an Unregistered Firearm, in violation of 26 U.S.C. §§ 5841, 5861(d), & 5871. See Judgment at 2, Dkt. 79.

After Mr. Wilson reported to BOP, he filed a post-conviction motion to vacate his sentence, which the government then did not oppose, citing a broader interpretation of the scope of the proclamation. The district court nonetheless denied the motion, and an appeal was filed. In the Circuit Court, the USAO filed a letter requesting that the court appoint an amicus to defend the district court's decision (attached). The government has not filed anything further in the case, which remains pending.

For our purposes, (b) (5) If you need any other case documents, just let me know.

Hi Ed –

I hope you're doing well. I'm sure things are crazy.

Recognizing that the shutdown may affect timing, would you have time to meet in person with a client of mine later this month. We are preparing an application for his Presidential pardon to your office.

My client, Dr. Michael Villarroel, is a former Navy physician, Iraq War veteran and Bronze Star recipient. (b) (6)

(b) (6)

He completed his sentence of 1 year and 1 day incarceration earlier this year and has no prior criminal record. To date, he is the only pardon case I have taken on, and I believe his application has serious merit.

Would you have time to meet in person around October 29 or 30?

Thank you,

Kendra

Neil will have to help us lock this in but things have been a bit turvy due to the shutdown.
I do know that I will likely not be in RFK on nov 3 … sorry about that.

It was wonderful to see you today and to have a great NJ conversation. As I mentioned, I am connecting you with another fine New Jerseyan and friend to Bill and me: Anne Collart from Gibbons in Newark. May Annie and I schedule a time to come see you?

Thanks so much, and have a wonderful evening!

Subject: My meeting today with Neville "Ned" Hedley
Date: Wed, 15 Oct 2025 17:16:43 -0400
Importance: Normal

Mr. Martin:

Neville “Ned” Hedley is a law school classmate of Brian Darling and a former Assistant U.S. Attorney. (b) (6)

Hedley is at the Hamilton Lincoln Law Institute, why he has developed an eye for dismantling NGO’s and tracking their money.

He explained to me instead of using RICO, you can go after leftwing groups who execute “direct action” with 18 U.S. Code § 241 - Conspiracy against rights, which covers a person’s right to the sidewalk or to drive on the street. Groups who set up bail and legal funds in advance of direct action are also vulnerable because of their “conspiracy foreknowledge” of a plot against someone’s rights.

In addition to the “241” charges, any investigation would have to include an IRS probe into their finances. Often, so-called “unorganized groups” have a fiscal sponsor, who manages their money and standardizes their finances under the sponsor’s own tax number and IRS-approved structure. However, the sponsor is supposed to provide oversight, including in regards to having tax-protected money used for criminal activity. This then provides nexus to the fiscal sponsor and how they are running their affairs. Poor oversight could very easily be seen a bank and tax fraud.

Neville said one of the most prolific fiscal sponsors is WestPAC Foundation.

I would strongly urge you to (b) (5)

Dear General Martin,
Good morning. It's been one month since I received the email below and letter from you regarding my case. As you might recall, within hours of receiving your letter, I sent you a detailed narrative background along with 12 separate documents providing additional detail regarding the facts of my case.

The campaign of harassment, intimidation and retaliation against me by public officials continues to this day. For example, after speaking about my case at the Parents Demanding Justice Alliance press conference in Washington, D.C., July, the massive 1,000 lawyer firm representing my public school district submitted a baseless, retaliatory complaint against me with the Pennsylvania Office of Disciplinary Counsel, which remains open and threatens my ability to provide for my family, in violation of my First Amendment rights.

I've followed up with you and your office a few times seeking a status update and confirmation that the offending parties in this matter have received formal notice of your investigation and have been directed to preserve all records, which is critical in this matter because I have evidence that the school district defendants have already destroyed evidence. I have also requested an opportunity to meet with you and/or members of your team to provide additional information and identify witnesses and parties in possession of relevant evidence. I have not yet received a response.

Can you or Mr. McCabe please respond to me and provide a status update as soon as possible.

I am grateful for your attention to my case and the work your team is doing. Thank you very much.

Respectfully,
Chad Williams
Parent, Pennsylvania

Hi Ed –

Just checking in to see if you still have time to meet in the next few weeks. I know you're crazy busy. I can make whatever time works for you work for me, with the exception of October 28th and November 4th.

Thanks so much!

Mr. Marin,
Please forward this to Chairman Comer.

Dear Chairman Comer,

Good to talk to your staff today about this very important matter.
As I mentioned on the phone, since we met in your office last June, I have been working on understanding the circumstances and facts that surround the unprecedented pardons and commutations of the President Joseph R. Biden Jr.'s administration.
My ongoing investigation has revealed abuses of the pardon and commutation process by political actors in the Biden Administration. The use of AutoPen at the direction of staff and perhaps others is troubling.
As an attorney, I am very aware that the power of the pardon rests with the President and that I am called to act on his behalf and within his power. I am not able in any way to act on my own behalf, and to bind him to any commutation or pardon. No other staffer may do so.
To be clear: All Executive power is vested in a duly elected and President. The highest functions of that Office including the pardon power are non-delegable. This is at once profound and common sense it provides a clear line of democratic accountability between decisions and consequences.
What I am seeing in my investigation of the Biden pardons is disturbing. Not only were there regularities but questions of confidence in the system and competence of the participants. .
The Constitution only works if the President is competent. The 25th Amendment was adopted after historical failures such as President Woodrow Wilson's incapacity and the shock of President John F. Kennedy's assassination to ensure our Nation never had an incompetent Chief Executive again.
That Amendment ultimately relies upon those it charged with monitoring the competency of the President doing that right thing and upholding their oaths. The Biden Administration broke this system down, when they hid the truth of the president's health from the American people

By accounts and now public admissions, President Biden did not appear competent, and all available evidence indicates that those charged under the 25th Amendment did not protect the Country, because the individuals charged with executing the Amendment's intent failed. Instead, they seem to have protected themselves and President Biden by covering up President Biden's incapacity. The abuses carried in connection with my office provide further evidence on this front, which certainly suggest that bad actors exploited President Biden's infirmary to secure their own agenda by, with, and through various means including the AutoPen.

As the Pardon Attorney, I can tell you unequivocally that my Office cannot support the validity and ongoing legal effect of pardons and commutations issued during the Biden Administration without further examination. Their validity must be fully examined in light of what we now know - and I suspect ultimately by a Court with a presentation of the evidence you and others have gathered.

In August, I released an internal email in my possession from former Deputy Attorney General Brad Weinsheimer that is emblematic of the problems in the former administration's commutation process. The e-mail was sent the Saturday morning after the White House announced sweeping commutations of thousands of so-called "non-violent" felons the day prior. Weinsheimer correctly noted that the list of individuals whose sentences were supposedly commuted contained seriously violent offenders. He requested clarification directly from the President as to the clear conflict between the White House's statements and the names put forward as somehow fitting into the category of the commutation.

In a New York Times article a month prior to my release of that particular e-mail, former President Biden disclosed that "he did not individually approve each name for categorical pardons that applied to large numbers of people." This alone seems to raise serious questions of whether those commutations are invalid. After all, only the President has the power to issue pardons or commutations. Setting aside other evidence regarding former President Biden's incapacity, his statement seems an admission that the commutations to which Mr. Weinsheimer took issue were not valid commutations in the first place, notwithstanding their other defects.

Other defects apply to the pardon process for several other high-profile pardons towards the end of the Biden Administration. My office cannot support the validity of AutoPen pardons for individuals such as Anthony Fauci, Adam Schiff, Mark Milley, and many more without further examination and fact-finding. In my tenure here, I have not seen any evidence supporting the theory that President Biden was personally aware and authorized these AutoPen'd pardons.

If these pardons or commutations are challenged in any way, I recognize serious difficulties in defending them. I greatly appreciate the work of Congress and your Committee in particular in conducting vigorous oversight into AutoPen abuses and its connections to pardons and commutations.

While it is unfortunate that such work is necessary, Americans now have a fuller accounting of the constitutional breakdown in their system of government. It is that broken trust that I as Pardon Attorney am committed to restoring. That work must involve accountability for official actions in violation of law. It will also involve recommitting my office to ensure that proper procedures are in place to ensure that only constitutional actions are effectuated through my office. No longer will we tolerate government by AutoPen.

Please let this letter serve as official recognition that I, as Pardon Attorney, recognize the grave abuses in the pardon and commutation process of the last Administration. My office stands ready to work with you to ensure these abuses never occur again. Sorry for this long email but I believe my follow up to our June meeting was deserved and late - for you so apologize.

All the best.

Mr. McCabe:

I was hoping you and ADAG/Pardon Attorney Martin could be of assistance as it relates to an on-going issue with Bureau of Prisons (BOP) and the DC Department of Corrections (DOC). My client Taylor Hewes is currently sentenced to 720 days in the custody of the U.S. Attorney General. Because he is serving six (6) months on four misdemeanor convictions stacked consecutively he is currently held at the DC DOC Central Treatment Facility (CTF) and has not been designated for transfer to BOP. Mr. Hewes was originally held at the DC Central Detention Facility (CDF) since May 5, 2025.

Until the BOP takes custody of Mr. Hewes, he may well serve his entire sentence in the DC DOC. As you know, a sentence of a year and day or more in a Superior Court case results in immediate transfer to BOP. But Mr. Hewes is in a grey area under existing policy. (b) (6)

(b) (6)

We have repeatedly asked the DOC to act, but thus far they are simply content to continue the same systematic failures of which we are all aware (most noticeably with the Jan. 6 Defendant's).

Dear Mr. McCabe,

My name is Kara Hartzler, and I am a federal public defender appointed to represent Joseph Hackett in the appeal of his conviction related to the events of January 6, 2021. Mr. Hackett was one of the 14 individuals who did not receive a pardon, even though he never assaulted anyone, never damaged any property, and spent only 11 minutes in the Capitol building. I will be traveling to D.C. the first week of December and would like the opportunity to meet with Ed Martin to discuss Mr. Hackett's pardon application.

(b) (6)

Though I am based in California, I will be in D.C. for another work-related matter from December 1-3 and would greatly appreciate the opportunity to meet with Mr. Martin. I am available anytime on Dec. 1 or the morning of Dec. 2, but I can be flexible if another time is preferable. For your convenience, I am also attaching the pardon application I submitted for Joe last month.

Thanks very much for considering this request. I hope it will be possible to meet with Mr. Martin.

Unless you think Janice needs to be in a communication loop with the news media, I have asked Salleigh Grubbs, the 1st Vice Chair of the GA GOP, to communicate some relevant documents to Isaac Arnsdorff at The Washington Post describing the problems with the subpoenas. Salleigh was featured in Arnsdorff's book, "Finish What We Started: The MAGA Movement's Ground War to End Democracy." Salleigh has a good relationship with Isaac -- in fact they were texting each other this morning -- and Isaac let Salleigh read what he wrote about her before it was published. She said that it was all true, but Isaac added the subtitle after he showed her the manuscript. (He said his publisher made him add that to sell books.)

Salleigh's communication today started with a text from Arnsdorff saying that he had seen a shredding truck and Salleigh responding that she had been triggered and ultimately sending him the subpoenas. We will, of course, try to accommodate different approaches.

Dear Chairman Comer,

Good to talk to your staff today about this very important matter.
As I mentioned on the phone, since we met in your office last June, I have been working on understanding the circumstances and facts that surround the unprecedented pardons and commutations of the President Joseph R. Biden Jr.'s administration.

No longer will we tolerate government by AutoPen.

Please let this letter serve as official recognition that I, as Pardon Attorney, recognize the grave abuses in the pardon and commutation process of the last Administration. My office stands ready to work with you to ensure these abuses never occur again. Sorry for this long email but I believe my follow up to our June meeting was deserved and late - for you so apologize.

Let's shoot for Wednesday. Thank you. It is important, but not a quick boil.

Unless, there is some triggering for the Nov. 3 people? Can we get a read on what is happening that day now? Not so much the analysis, but the actual movements.

Hi Neil,

Of course. I will work with Kira to get something put together as she has direct knowledge of some of the back and forth with BOP. However, I am out the next couple days to cover early dismissal/school closures. Would you and Mr. Martin be available Wednesday? I can set it up through Teams so you both can call in from Main, etc.

Best regards,
Jackie

Ma'am:

Next week, maybe Tuesday, could someone brief Mr. Martin and me on this?

A PowerPoint slide might be helpful. I have had conversations about this situation at Pardon and Main Justice about these clemencies, but it is still a mystery to me.

Although there is an AutoPen nexus, make the briefing without reference to the AutoPen, so we can understand the issue on his own terms.

McCabe

Dear Neil,
Thank you for taking the time to meet with Joel and me today to discuss the weaponization of government as applied to our client, Alexei Kuzmichev, who is designated under Executive Order 14024 and the Russia Sanctions Regulations, 31 C.F.R. Part 587. As we discussed, I represent Mr. Kuzmichev under the general license for legal services set forth in 31 C.F.R. § 587.506. Joel has been conducting the research in connection with our petition for delisting.
We are very appreciative of your offer to review the case, and make recommendations to OFAC. We would also welcome any ideas you have of other interagency stakeholders who would be relevant to the OFAC delisting petition.
We look forward to being in touch and will continue to share information that is helpful to the great work your office is doing.
Thanks again and have a great weekend,
Nick

Dear Mr. McCabe,

I very much appreciate your time in reviewing this letter and the information attached.

I am advocating for my son Garret Miller, a J6er who was incarcerated pretrial in Washington DC.

Garret was the first defendant to have his 1512 (c) 2 obstruction charge dismissed by Judge Carl Nichols and subsequently argued that dismissal through the DC Circuit Court of Appeals and then one of the defendants who filed the PETITION FOR A WRIT OF CERTIORARIi to the Supreme Court. (Doc #1 attached)

I am asking for a review of his gun charge (Doc #2) that was brought against him after his trial in DC and before his sentencing. This charge was brought 727 days after it was confiscated during his arrest on Jan. 20, 2021.

We believe this charge was brought against him due to him asking to be sentenced to time served; A blatant weaponization of our government against him along with the 1512 (c) 2 charge that he fought through the courts at great personal expense. The description of this gun is attached (Doc #3)

Due to this charge, he served almost his entire prison sentence in pretrial detention until his release in September of 2023. (Please see Doc-4 Habeus Corpus below)

He is currently serving probation from this gun felony charge after being pardoned by President Trump.

I am attaching a Dallas Morning News article about his case that went into detail about how his gun was evaluated as a short barrel rifle due to an attachment he had installed on the gun he purchased legally in 2017. (Doc-5 attached)

Our lawyer Clint Broden sent a letter to your office detailing his case last week. (Doc-6 below)

I am requesting a meeting be scheduled between Ed Martin and Clint so they can discuss how we can proceed to get justice for Garret.

With the utmost respect for all the work you and your office are achieving for the American people,

Mary Catherine Miller

I genuinely hope to help this family find peace, which I believe the Trump administration is both equipped to enable and sympathetic to the egregious consequences of politically weaponized justice under former Director Comey and Attorney General Lynch.

Hi Ed hoping this finds you well! I found some remaining links to J6 content regarding me on government websites and I'm wondering if these links could be disabled? It's transcripts of my J6 committee deposition, and my complaint, and the FBI press release about my arrest, etc

Some of these are still ranking highly in my search results, and it would be very nice to not have to deal with this anymore

Could you let me know?

Thank you so much once again for the opportunity to discuss the plight of my client, Alexey Kuzmichev, formerly of Alfa Bank, who is a victim of government weaponization.

Per Neil's suggestion, attached please find a draft letter from yourself to Brad Smith, Director of OFAC, requesting the delisting of my client from US sanctions. I believe the argument in this letter spells out clearly why this is a case of weaponization that should be rectified under President Trump's Executive Order "Ending the Weaponization of the Federal Government."

If there is anything I can clarify, please don't hesitate to reach out. Many thanks again for your assistance in helping to end the era of government weaponization.

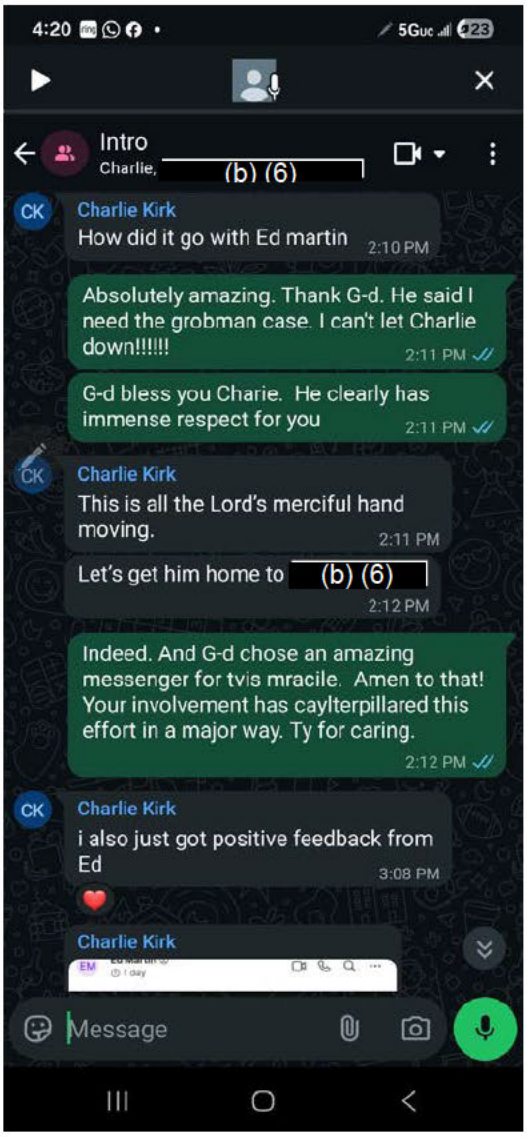
Dear DAG Blanche

Warm Greetings. I hope this note finds you in the best of health and spirits. I cant begin to tell you the impact of the decision you and PDAG Bove made after our meeting re the halfway house matter. So many families have been impacted in the most incredibly positive way. Generational impact.

Was just meeting with General Martin and he suggested I flag the case Charlie Kirk of blessed memory was working on (and was direcclty in touch with Ed Martin about)

Screenshot attached and below



Johnny Grobman - a (b) (6) - received a stunning 18 year sentence for a first time non violent offense where essentially no one lost money. The case centered around a grey market offense, where the reason he got such a long sentence was connected to the potential loss of revenue of major pharmaceutical companies. (POTUS deserves a huge shoutout for tacking their incredibly disturbing profit margins).

He already spent about 6 years in prison - (b) (6) .

John Ashcroft and Michael Mukasey were amongst over 100 former federal prosecutors and judges who urged President Biden to take action and remedy this injustice. Sadly, he did not.

Charlie Kirk, G-d bless his soul, (b) (6) and was planning on speaking to POTUS about this.

(b) (6) . Here is a short clip of the sentencing video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UmQ9vIRk3sk.

G-d bless you! May you and your loved ones be inscribed and sealed for a happy and healthy new year!

Many thanks!

Zvi-

P.S. A brief summary of the background of his case is included below, along with a memo discussing his case in more detail. I also want to flag an important personal reflection letter included on page 17 of the attached clemency packet for which he apologize about a comment he made about a decade ago - before he realized how he was being mislead by the media. He and his family are tremendous supporters of POTUS.

Dear Mr. McCabe:

I am reaching out, at Mr. Martin's suggestion, to schedule a meeting with him to discuss collateral white collar prosecutions I am involved in defending, along with co-counsel Mike Farkas, Esq., in the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York. We believe these cases have all the indicia of Biden-era DOJ weaponization and would like to seek your Office's review and possible intervention.

By way of background, Ed and I became acquainted through our advocacy on behalf of the J6 community via the Patriot Freedom Project. I also witnessed Alvin Bragg's weaponization up close, during my successful defense of Marine Veteran, Daniel Penny. In that regard, I'm aware that you, like Mike Farkas and I, are a fellow Army veteran. Mike served 28 years in the Army Reserves and retired a military judge, whereas I served 21 years in the New York Army National Guard and deployed to Iraq for OIF III.

I am aware of how demanding Mr. Martin's schedule is, and that he is also attending to personal matters, yet given our clients' approaching trial date, we are hoping we might be able to schedule a meeting at the earliest possible time. I am also happy to provide any further details on these cases at your request.

Thank you for your time and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Best regards,

Tom

Subject: Federal Benefits Open Season Has Begun! Benefits Fair in DC today at ATF in DC

PARDON Team (Feds Only):

Please see message below from JMD HR on FEHB Open Season Enrollment.

Yun

The Annual Federal Benefits Open Season has officially started and will continue through December 8, 2025.

All JMD/OBD and USTP employees in the Washington, DC area are invited to attend the ATF health fair. The fair will be held on Thursday November 20 from 9:30 am to 1:30 pm at ATF Headquarters. The ATF Building is located at 90 New York Avenue, across the street from the NOMA-Gallaudet Metro Station.

During the Open Season, you can enroll, cancel, or change your enrollment in your Federal Employees Health Benefits (FEHB) coverage and your Federal Employees Dental and Vision Plans (FEDVIP), and you can enroll or reenroll in a Flexible Spending Account (FSA).

Any elections or changes to your FEDVIP or FSA will become effective on January 1, 2026. Additionally, any elections or changes to your FEHB will become effective on January 11, 2026.

Attached to this email are instructions for the methods available to you for enrollment, changes, and cancellations for each benefit program. Included in the attachments are lists of significant plan changes for FEHB.

As a reminder, FEHB changes can be made through the self-service system Employee Personal Page (EPP).

Please direct your questions regarding the Open Season to our Benefits Administrator - Government Retirement & Benefits, Inc. (GRB). GRB's highly qualified and experienced staff stand ready to provide a full range of retirement and benefits services to you through GRB's Benefits Service Center.

Hey, Ed

Tina Peters was just thrown in the hole in her jail the day after she filed a complaint about a teacher. She sick and now they're punishing her more due to her filing the complaint. This has to be enough to get her out.

She was (b) (6). They're abusing her.

Hi Neil,

We mailed a package with a copy of the sealed warrant to clemency counsel of record (George Pallas), so Mr. Wilson should receive that soon. Attaching the electronic copy here in case you would like to send to Ms. Stewart. It is also available on our website.

Best regards,
Jackie

Dear U.S. Pardon Attorney,

Mr. Wilson sends his thanks for the work for the new Pardon related to his January 6 charges. He very much appreciates being released from prison and now able to spend the holidays with his family.

The emailed Pardon (attached) that I received refers to a DOJ seal being affixed. Is there now a pardon with said seal? Or should this be considered a request by Mr. Wilson's attorney for a Pardon certificate to accompany the attached signed Pardon?

Will appreciate a response.

Sincerely,
Carolyn Stewart
Counsel for Mr. Wilson

Attorney Client Communication

Dear Ed,

1. I enjoyed our meet Friday. Good to see a person in DC with your St Louis background and a strong belief in the Executive Branch of the US Government.

2. As you know, I was on the Reply Brief of United States vs Nixon.
   See https://en.m.wikipedia.org/wiki/Eugene_R._Sullivan_

3. Not mentioned in my Wiki bio, was the curious fact that after my White House Asst. Special Counsel job on the Nixon Defense Team, I was the lead DOJ attorney fighting the "Nixon Impoundment" cases around the Country (13 states sued the USG for 2+ billion USD in Federal Highway funds that President Nixon used for purposes other that for highway funding)-----I lost all those cases on the basis that the President was prohibited from using funds for purposes other than the purpose designated by the US Congress.

4. In the US vs Nixon case, we lost the case on the turnover of the Watergate tapes because Nixon was an unindicted co-conspirator and the tapes were necessary as evidence in the criminal trial before Judge Sirica. However, we did win on the important point that one of the powers of the President is the power of Executive Privilege. As the majority opinion in US vs Nixon states: "Nowhere in the Constitution, as we have noted earlier, is there any explicit reference to a privilege of confidentiality, yet to the extent this interest relates to the effective discharge of a President's power, it is constitutionally based." US vs Nixon at 418.

5. Bottom Line: From my Nixon experiences, I was reinforced in my belief that under our Constitution.
    a. Congress makes laws and controls the "Purse"
    b. The Judiciary branch interprets the law
    c. The President has sole authority over the entire executive branch (the Unitary Executive Theory)

6. If you like, we could grab a bite to eat sometime to chat about the powers of the President. Too bad DC doesn't have Toasted Ravioli or a Steak & Shake around here.

God bless,
Gene
