From: Mike Read <mike@morpm.com>
Sent: Wednesday, December 23, 2009 1:53 PM
To: ATR-Agricultural Workshops <agriculturalworkshops@usdoj.gov>
Subject: Food in Schools

The fast food they are serving in schools is not only unhealthy, but studies have shown it to be addictive.

The fact is we have an obesity epidemic, with all it's inherent consequences, and the schools are not helping.

Children do not have the full capacity to make good decisions. They need intelligent adult assistance and they are not getting it.

Please put children ahead of budgets and profits.

Thanks...Mike