

Tribal Community and Justice Profile Part B: Tribal Narrative Profile

Applicant Name: _____

Tribal Narrative Profile (35%)

You may enter as much, or as little, text as needed to fully describe the community as long as the total number of pages for the entire Tribal Narrative Profile does not exceed 15 pages. Remember that the individuals reviewing the application may not be familiar with the community, so descriptions should be as clear and detailed as possible. Be sure that every question is answered. If there are questions that you are unable to answer, provide an explanation as to why the information is unavailable.

1. Describe the general form of your tribal government.
2. Briefly describe the tribal justice system including prevention and/or intervention initiatives for members at-risk of involvement or already involved in the justice system (youth/adult); Law enforcement, including any cross-jurisdictional agreements; Courts; Alternative dispute resolution; Corrections, including juvenile detention facilities; Services for victims/survivors of crime (e.g., violent crime, drug-related crime, child abuse, elder abuse, domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence, and stalking); Tribal reentry programs; Sex offender registry obligations. If services are not available within the Tribe, please describe how they are accessed or provided.
3. Describe the significant tribal justice, community safety, juvenile delinquency, and victimization issues (e.g., child abuse, elder abuse, domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence, and stalking) facing the Tribal Nation and explain why these issues are the most pressing. Ensure that the problems described are connected to the purpose areas for which the Tribe is applying.
4. Describe current and future plans to comprehensively address the Tribe's public safety, criminal and juvenile justice, or victimization issues (e.g., violent crime, drug-related crime, child abuse, elder abuse, domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence, and stalking).
5. Discuss any additional information about your Tribe that would be important in the understanding and evaluation of your application.

The Tribal Community and Justice Profile will be rated based on the following criteria:

- The extent to which the application fully responds to the requested information
- The need for funding as described in the Tribal Community & Justice Profile
