

From: Kaleidoscope Toys [mailto:ksto[REDACTED]]
Sent: Monday, June 25, 2012 1:50 PM
To: Read, John
Subject: Proposed Consent Decree in United States v. Apple, Inc.

Mr. John Read
Chief Litigation III Section
Antitrust Division
U.S. Department of Justice
450 5th Street, NW, Suite 4000
Washington, DC 20530

Re: Comments on the Proposed Consent Decree in United States v. Apple, Inc., et al., 77 Fed. Reg. 24518 (April 24, 2012)

Dear Mr. Read:

I own Kaleidoscope Toys in Round Rock, Tx. I am not a "book store" but I do sell books as well as specialty toys. I am writing in support of the Agency Model. I believe that the Agency Model corrects a distortion in the market fostered primarily by Amazon.com, at least in the book and e-book side of things. I view it as a start in the right direction to combat the giant monopoly that Amazon has become only because of their great advantage in so many ways that are not available to retail brick & mortar stores. Help bring back America to a true competitive nation with fair opportunity to all. The Agency Model IS in the best interest of retailers, consumers and our nation.

Terry Myers
Kaleidoscope Toys 1601 S IH35 #325
Round Rock, Tx 78664
512-388-5048
www.kstoy.com