The Office of Overseas Prosecutorial Development, Assistance and Training (OPDAT), Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, seeks an experienced Assistant United States Attorney, Department of Justice Trial Attorney or State Prosecutor to serve as an Intermittent Legal Advisor (ILA) at the U.S. Embassy in Dhaka, Bangladesh, beginning on or about August 1, 2013. This assignment is for a term of 6 months with the possibility of extension, contingent on additional funding. This position is a reimbursable detail. Conditions of the detail will be handled on a case by case basis and will require an agreement between the chosen applicant's home office and OPDAT.

About the Office: The mission of OPDAT is to develop and administer technical and developmental assistance designed to enhance the capabilities of foreign justice sector institutions and their law enforcement personnel. This assistance is administered in order to enable those institutions and their personnel to more effectively combat terrorism, organized crime, corruption, financial crimes and other types of crime consistent with the rule of law. The assistance is also administered to enable those institutions and their personnel to more effectively cooperate with the United States and countries in their region to combat such crime. For more information about the office, please access our website at <http://www.justice.gov/criminal/opdat/>.

Responsibilities and Opportunities: The ILA will represent the U.S. Department of Justice and OPDAT in the implementation of justice sector technical assistance activities designed to support regional South Asian efforts to implement the Global Counterterrorism Forum (GCTF) Rabat Memorandum on Good Practices for Effective Counterterrorism Practice in the Criminal Justice Sector (The Rabat Memorandum). The ILA will work closely with key ministries, including those representing home affairs, law, and justice, parliamentarians, law enforcement officials, prosecutors, judges and representatives of civil society and academia, as well as appropriate USG and international partners. Assistance will include curricula development, creating and identifying opportunities to exchange information and planning and implementing seminars designed to promote the adoption and use of the Rabat Memorandum Good Practices for relevant stakeholders from South Asian countries, while also encouraging South Asian criminal justice authorities to take a leadership role in regional capacity development efforts devoted to promotion of the Rabat Memorandum. As appropriate, the ILA will also support legislative efforts to address related areas of concern including improvement of anti-terrorism laws, and laws governing mutual legal assistance and international law enforcement cooperation. The ILA will also support international and Bangladeshi government efforts to establish and develop a National Academy for Security Training (NAST) in Dhaka, an international venue for training and development of law enforcement, prosecutorial and judicial officials from throughout South Asia on security sector and transnational crime matters. Regional travel will be required.

Qualifications: Required Qualifications: Applicants must be a current Department Trial Attorney or Assistant United States Attorney, or State Prosecutor and possess a J.D. degree and be an active member of the bar in good standing (any jurisdiction) as well as be duly licensed and authorized to practice as an attorney under the laws of a State, territory of the United States, or the District of Columbia. The minimum requirement for post J.D. legal experience for this position is four or five years. The successful applicant must have the ability to function effectively in an international, multi-cultural environment; possess excellent interpersonal and management skills; communicate effectively orally and in writing and possess extensive prosecution experience.

Preferred Qualifications: Experience in bar activities, teaching, designing course curricula and/or work with international development projects is strongly desired, but not required.

Location: This position will be located in Dhaka, Bangladesh, and is unaccompanied.

Relocation Expenses: Relocation expenses are not authorized.

Travel: Extensive travel throughout South Asia will be required.

Salary Information: Current salary level and years of litigation experience will determine the appropriate salary at the time of appointment. Compensation will be at the General Schedule GS-15 level. The exact salaries within these GS levels vary based on many factors including duty location and type of appointment. The Washington D.C. salary ranges for these levels during 2013 are: GS-14 $105,211 - $136,771 per annum; GS-15 $123,758 - $155,500 per annum. Base salary table and locality pay tables for all U.S. locations during 2013 can be found at: <http://www.opm.gov/oca/12tables/indexGS.asp>.

Submission Process: Interested applicants must submit a cover letter (highlighting relevant experience), a detailed resume, and a current performance evaluation, if applicable to:

Mr. Thomas Dorwin, OPDAT Acting Deputy Director for Administration, at OPDAT\_Admin@usdoj.gov.

Deadling Date: Applications will be accepted until this position is filled.

DEPARTMENT POLICIES: The U.S. Department of Justice is an Equal Opportunity/Reasonable Accommodation Employer. Except where otherwise provided by law, there will be no discrimination because of color, race, religion, national origin, political affiliation, marital status, disability (physical or mental), age, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, genetic information, status as a parent, membership or non-membership in an employee organization, on the basis of personal favoritism, or any non merit factor. The Department of Justice welcomes and encourages applications from persons with physical and mental disabilities. The Department is firmly committed to satisfying its affirmative obligations under the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, to ensure that persons with disabilities have every opportunity to be hired and advanced on the basis of merit within the Department of Justice. This agency provides reasonable accommodation to applicants with disabilities where appropriate. If you need a reasonable accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process, please notify the agency. Determinations on requests for reasonable accommodation will be made on a case-by-case basis.

It is the policy of the Department to achieve a drug-free workplace and persons selected for employment will be required to pass a drug test which screens for illegal drug use prior to final appointment. Employment is also contingent upon the completion and satisfactory adjudication of a background investigation. Only U.S. citizens are eligible for employment with the Executive Office for Immigration Review and the United States Attorneys' Offices. Unless otherwise indicated in a particular job advertisement, non-U.S. citizens may apply for employment with other organizations, but should be advised that appointments of non-U.S. citizens are extremely rare; such appointments would be possible only if necessary to accomplish the Department's mission and would be subject to strict security requirements. Applicants who hold dual citizenship in the U.S. and another country will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

There is no formal rating system for applying veterans' preference to attorney appointments in the excepted service; however, the Department of Justice considers veterans' preference eligibility as a positive factor in attorney hiring. Applicants eligible for veterans' preference must include that information in their cover letter or resume and attach supporting documentation (e.g., the DD 214, Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty and other supporting documentation) to their submissions. Although the "point" system is not used, per se, applicants eligible to claim 10-point preference must submit Standard Form (SF) 15, Application for 10-Point Veteran Preference, and submit the supporting documentation required for the specific type of preference claimed (visit the OPM website, www.opm.gov/forms/pdf\_fill/SF15.pdf for a copy of SF 15, which lists the types of 10-point preferences and the required supporting document(s). Applicants should note that SF 15 requires supporting documentation associated with service-connected disabilities or receipt of non-service-connected disability pensions to be dated 1991 or later except in the case of service members submitting official statements or retirement orders from a branch of the Armed Forces showing that his or her retirement was due to a permanent service-connected disability or that he/she was transferred to the permanent disability retired list (the statement or retirement orders must indicate that the disability is 10% or more).
