

“In the Western District of New York, environmental crimes often impact communities of color and low-income communities at a higher rate than other communities. Ensuring that all communities have access to fresh air, clean water, and a healthy, high quality of life is a priority my office will vigorously pursue.”

-- U.S. Attorney Trini Ross

Environmental Justice & Public Health

---

Ensuring safe living and working conditions for our entire community is a priority in the Western District of New York. Notifying the U.S. Attorney's Office about environmental justice concerns helps us protect the community from harmful violations of federal law.

INFORMATION

The U.S. Department of Justice enforces the Nation's civil and criminal environmental laws, including the Clean Air Act, Clean Water Act, and hazardous waste laws. We also protect natural resources and handle cases relating to tribal rights and resources.

Working with our U.S. Department of Justice partners, the U.S. Attorney's Office seeks to secure environmental justice for all communities, to ensure that everyone enjoys the same degree of protection from environmental and health hazards and equal access to a healthy environment in which to live, learn, play and work.

---

U.S. Attorney Trini Ross encourages residents to contact the U.S. Attorney's Office at (716) 843-5700 or email us at: USANYW.Environment@usdoj.gov when also contacting local, state, or federal agency hotlines or websites to report environmental, health and safety concerns. Notifying our Office helps us protect the community from harmful violations of federal health & safety laws.
