GOVERNMENT'S MOTION FOR TRANSFER

The United States of America respectfully requests that an Order be entered transferring the above-entitled criminal action to the Honorable Terry Means, a Judge of this Court, for the purposes of re-arraignment, plea, and sentencing, and shows the following in support thereof:

1. On December 9, 1994, the United States filed four criminal Informations with the Clerk of this Court charging Amarillo Winnelson Company, Inc., Gerald Brandt, Morrison Supply Company and Darrell Hawkins each with a violation of the Sherman Act (15 U.S.C. §1). The Informations, copies of which are annexed hereto, were filed and randomly assigned as follows:

494CR-134Y -- U.S. v. Amarillo Winnelson Company, Inc.

494CR-135A -- U.S. v. Gerald Brandt

494CR-136Y -- U.S. v. Morrison Supply Company

494CR-137A -- U.S. v. Darrell Hawkins

2. The defendants named above are co-conspirators and charged with the same criminal conduct arising from the same criminal transaction. Also, Darrell Hawkins is an officer/employee of Morrison Supply Company and Gerald Brandt is an officer/employee of Amarillo Winnelson Company, Inc.

3. It is submitted that due to the legal and factual similarities of the cases against the defendants, and the relationship between corporate defendants and its officers, it serves the interest of judicial economy and efficiency for the same judge to preside over the re-arraignment, plea, and sentencing of all defendants.

4. Pursuant to local rule, U.S. v. Amarillo Winnelson Company, Inc., the first case filed with the Court, was randomly assigned to the Honorable Terry Means. When filed with the Clerk of this Court, U.S. v. Darrell Hawkins was randomly assigned to the Honorable John McBryde. The United States requests that the instant case be transferred to the Honorable Terry Means, a judge of this Court, who currently presides over the first case filed U.S. v. Amarillo Winnelson Company, Inc. and U.S. v. Morrison Supply Company, where Darrell Hawkins is currently an officer/employee of the company.

5. The undersigned counsel has spoken with counsel for the defendant, Darrell Hawkins, who consents to the filing of this Motion to Transfer.

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested that an Order be entered transferring the above-entitled case to the Honorable Terry Means, a Judge of this Court, for the purposes of re-arraignment, plea, and sentencing.

Respectfully submitted,
