

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
EXECUTIVE OFFICE FOR IMMIGRATION REVIEW
OFFICE OF THE CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING OFFICER

1 OCAHO 159

United States of America, Complainant v. Dodge Printing Centers, Inc., Respondent; 8 U.S.C. 1324a Proceeding; Case No. 89100453.

ORDER

On January 12, 1990, a Decision and Order was mailed to the parties, including the Respondent, pro se, at his last known address pursuant to 28 C.F.R. § 68.3.

That on April 16, 1990, I received at my office a Motion to set aside my Decision and Order and to extend the time for appeal by the Respondent.

That Respondent indicated in his Motion that my Decision and Order of January 12, 1990, was never served on his alleged registered agent, The Corporation Company, 1600 Broadway, Suite 1450, Denver, Colorado 80202.

That on April 20, 1990, the Complainant, through its attorney of record, Weldon S. Caldbeck, filed a response to Respondent's above Motion alleging, among other things, that my decision was mailed to Respondent's last known address pursuant to 28 C.F.R. § 68.3, and that neither the ALJ nor the Complainant was advised that any change of address should be used.

That I have carefully reviewed the Respondent's Motion and find that the proper procedure for mailing was followed and that said Motion is without merit and therefore, is denied.

My Decision and Order filed on January 12, 1990, stands as is.

IT IS SO ORDERED: This 26th day of April, 1990, at San Diego, California.
