FINAL DECISION

The Commission issued its Proposed Decision in this matter on July 28, 1971, certifying losses to ALBERT TURNER and ROSE TURNER, each in the amount of $111,845.54 for a one-half interest in certain stock interests in each of two Cuban entities, Palm Clothing Co. and Inversiones Corrales, S.A., nationalized by the Government of Cuba on October 24, 1960 and September 13, 1961, respectively.

The Commission now finds that the interest of ALBERT TURNER was in fact the aggregate of the described losses in connection with the two Cuban entities, his spouse having no interest therein.

Summary

The Commission therefore finds that claimant ALBERT TURNER suffered the following losses within the meaning of Title V of the Act:

Item	Date of Loss	Amount
Stock interest in Palm Clothing Co.	October 24, 1960	$188,691.08
Stock interest in Inversiones Corrales, S.A.	September 13, 1961	35,000.00
		$223,691.08

Accordingly, the Certifications of Loss in the Proposed Decision are set aside, the following Certification of Loss will be entered, and the remainder of the Proposed Decision as amended herein is affirmed.

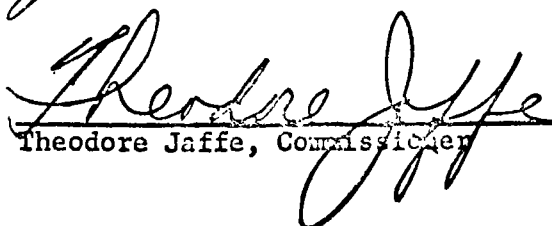

CERTIFICATION OF LOSS

The Commission certifies that ALBERT TURNER suffered a loss, as a result of actions of the Government of Cuba, within the scope of Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, in the amount of Two Hundred Twenty-Three Thousand Six Hundred Ninety-One Dollars and Eight Cents ($223,691.08) with interest thereon at 6% per annum from the respective dates of loss to the date of settlement.

ROSE TURNER

Claim No. CU -0387

Decision No. CU - 5925

Under the International Claims Settlement
Act of 1949, as amended

PROPOSED DECISION

This claim against the Government of Cuba under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, was presented by ALBERT TURNER in the amount of $223,691.08 based upon the loss of his ownership interests in two Cuban enterprises known as Compania de Ropa Palma, S.A. and Inversiones Corrales, S.A. Claimant ALBERT TURNER has been a national of the United States since his naturalization on August 21, 1921.

Under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 [78 Stat. 1110 (1964), 22 U.S.C. §§1643-1643k (1964), as amended, 79 Stat. 988 (1965)], the Commission is given jurisdiction over claims of nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba. Section 503(a) of the Act provides that the Commission shall receive and determine in accordance with applicable substantive law, including international law, the amount and validity of claims by nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba arising since January 1, 1959 for losses resulting from the nationalization, expropriation, intervention or other taking of, or special measures directed against, property including any rights or interests therein owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly at the time by nationals of the United States.

Section 502(3) of the Act provides:

The term 'property' means any property, right, or interest including any leasehold interest, and debts owed by the Government of Cuba or by enterprises which have been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba and debts which are a charge on property which has been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba.

Claimant, ALBERT TURNER, describes his losses as follows:

30% interest in Palm Clothing Co.	$188,691.08
33-1/3% interest in Inversiones Corrales, S.A.	35,000.00
	$223,691.08

The record discloses that ROSE TURNER, the wife of ALBERT TURNER since prior to 1960, has been a national of the United States since birth. Pursuant to the community property law of Cuba she had an interest in property acquired by her husband in Cuba subsequent to their marriage. Accordingly, ROSE TURNER has been joined as claimant in this matter.

On the basis of the evidence of record, the Commission finds that claimants, since prior to 1960, have been the owners of 1,110 shares (at $100 nominal value each, the peso being on a par with the United States dollar) of the total outstanding shares of stock of Compania de Ropa Palma, S.A., hereafter referred to as Palm Clothing Co.; and 225 shares of Inversiones Corrales, S.A.; and further that these shares represented a 30% interest in Palm Clothing Co. and 33-1/3% interest in Inversiones Corrales, S.A.

On October 24, 1960, Palm Clothing Co. was listed as nationalized in Resolution 3 pursuant to Law 851; and Inversiones Corrales, S.A. was listed as nationalized in Acc. 7 of September 13, 1961 pursuant to Law 890. The Commission finds that these firms were nationalized within the meaning of Title V of the Act on the dates they were so listed in the Cuban Official Gazette.

Since Palm Clothing Company and Inversiones Corrales, S.A., were organized under the laws of Cuba, they do not qualify as corporate nationals of the United States as defined under Section 502(1)(B) of the Act as a corporation or other legal entity organized under the laws of the United States, or any State, the District of Columbia or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, whose ownership is vested to the extent of 50 per centum or more in natural persons who are citizens of the United States. In this type of situation it has been held that an American stockholder owning an interest in such a corporation may file a claim for the value of his ownership interest. (See Claim of Parke, Davis & Company, Claim No. CU-0180, 1967 FCSC Ann. Rep. 33.)

The Act provides in Section 503(a) that in making determinations with respect to the validity and amount of claims and value of properties, rights, or interests taken, the Commission shall take into account the basis of valuation most appropriate to the property and equitable to the claimant, including but not limited to fair market value, book value, going concern value, or cost of replacement.

The question, in all cases, will be to determine the basis of valuation which, under the particular circumstances, is "most appropriate to the property and equitable to the claimant". This phraseology does not differ from the international legal standard that would normally prevail in the evaluation of nationalized property. It is designed to strengthen that standard by giving specific bases of valuation that the Commission shall consider.

Palm Clothing Co.

The record includes a copy of a consolidated balance sheet for Palm Clothing Co. and its subsidiaries as of June 30, 1960 and another balance sheet for Palm Clothing Co. alone as of December 30, 1959 in the Spanish language. These balance sheets were prepared by a firm of Public Accountants in Havana, Cuba. The record also includes a copy of a stock certificate for 1,110 shares endorsed to claimant, and evidence that this represented 30% of the capital stock.

Upon consideration of the entire record, the Commission finds that the valuation most appropriate to the property and equitable to the claimant is that shown in the balance sheet of June 30, 1960 which reflects the following:

ASSETS

Current Assets:

Cash on Hand and Banks	$ 66,052.48
Accounts Receivable	291,913.83

TOTAL CAPITAL 628,970.27

TOTAL LIABILITIES AND CAPITAL $785,167.10

The balance sheet of June 30, 1960 indicates that the net worth of the Palm Clothing Co. and subsidiaries was the capital stock issued and outstanding ($493,000.00) plus the surplus ($22,912.13) and net profit ($113,058.14) or $628,970.27.

Accordingly, the Commission finds that claimants suffered a loss in the amount of $188,691.08, the value of their 30% stock interest in the Palm Clothing Co., as the result of the taking of this business enterprise by the Government of Cuba.

Inversiones Corrales, S. A.

The record reflects that Inversiones Corrales, S.A. was established as a real estate holding company to hold title to the land and building occupied by Palm Clothing Company and its affiliated and subsidiary corporations. The record also discloses that the land was acquired about March, 1959, that thereafter a 3-story loft building of steel and concrete was erected, and that the total cost for land and building was $105,000.00. The building was located at Calle Suzarte between Santa Catalina and La Palma in the suburb of Quinto Palatino, Havana, and was on a lot of about 3,300 square meters. The record includes a report from abroad, photocopies of 2 cancelled checks of claimant totalling $35,000.00 and an affidavit by the attorney for Inversiones Corrales, S.A. and Palm Clothing Co. in which he states that the improved realty in question was acquired at a cost of $105,000.00; that there were 3 stockholders of Inversiones Corrales, S.A. including claimant ALBERT TURNER, each owning 225 shares for which each paid $35,000.00, and that this corporation had no liabilities. The record also includes affidavits by claimant, ALBERT TURNER, by the vice president and general manager of Palm Clothing Co. and by the office manager of Inversiones Corrales, S.A.; blueprints and a copy of the cost estimates for the building; and a copy of the stock certificate for 225 shares endorsed to claimant.

Based on the entire record the Commission finds that the net worth of Inversiones Corrales, S.A. on the date of loss was $105,000.00 and that claimants as holders of one-third of the outstanding shares of the corporation, suffered a loss in the amount of $35,000.00 as the result of the taking of this corporation by the Government of Cuba.

Summary

The Commission therefore finds that claimants suffered the following losses within the meaning of Title V of the Act:

Item	Date of Loss	Amount
Stock interest in Palm Clothing Co.	October 24, 1960	$188,691.08
Stock interest in Inversiones Corrales, S.A.	September 13, 1961	35,000.00
		$223,691.08

The Commission has decided that in certifications of loss on claims determined pursuant to Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, interest should be included at the rate of 6% per annum from the date of loss to the date of settlement (see Claim of Lisle Corporation, Claim No. CU-0644), and in the instant case it is so ordered, as follows:

FROM	ON
ALBERT TURNER
October 24, 1960	$ 94,345.54
September 13, 1961	17,500.00
	$111,845.54

ROSE TURNER
October 24, 1960	$ 94,345.54
September 13, 1961	17,500.00
	$111,845.54
