IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

MERCANTILE TRUST COMPANY,
EVELYN ROGLES FRUHWIRTH and MARION ROGLES LINDELL, EXECUTORS of the ESTATE OF FRANCIS J. ROGLES, DECEASED

Claim No. CU-1640

Decision No. CU 1928

Under the International Claims Settlement
Act of 1949, as amended

PROPOSED DECISION

This claim against the Government of Cuba, under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, was presented by MERCANTILE TRUST COMPANY, EVELYN ROGLES FRUHWIRTH and MARION ROGLES LINDELL, EXECUTORS of the ESTATE OF FRANCIS J. ROGLES, DECEASED, based on an interest in a bond issued by the Association of the Religious Community of the Company of Jesus of Bethlehem College of Havana. Decedent, Francis J. Rogles, had been a national of the United States since his birth until his death on January 2, 1964.

Under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 [78 Stat. 1110 (1964), 22 U.S.C. §§1643-1643k (1964), as amended, 79 Stat. 988 (1965)], the Commission is given jurisdiction over claims of nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba. Section 503(a) of the Act provides that the Commission shall receive and determine in accordance with applicable substantive law, including international law, the amount and validity of claims by nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba arising since January 1, 1959 for losses resulting from the nationalization, expropriation, intervention or other taking of, or special measures directed against, property including any rights or interests therein owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly at the time by nationals of the United States.

Section 502(3) of the Act provides:

The term 'property' means any property, right or interest including any leasehold interest, and debts owed by the Government of Cuba or by enterprises which have been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba and debts which are a charge on property which has been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba.

On the basis of evidence of record, the Commission finds that the late Francis J. Rogles, now deceased, was since prior to May 3, 1961 the owner of a bond in the original face amount of $1000.00 issued by the Association of the Religious Community of the Company of Jesus of Bethlehem College of Havana, and known as 5-1/4% First Mortgage Six Year Gold Bonds, due February 1, 1934, under an Agreement of May 22, 1928, with the Bankers Trust Company, Trustee. The bond was secured by all of the Association's property in Cuba. The bond in question is No. M0906.

The Last Will and Testament of decedent, Francis J. Rogles, was admitted to probate in January 1964 and pursuant to the provisions of the Will, Marion Rogles Lindell, Evelyn Rogles Fruhwirth and The Security Mutual Bank and Trust Company of St. Louis were appointed executors of the estate. Subsequently, Mercantile Trust Company succeeded the Security Mutual Bank and Trust Company as one of the executors. Pursuant to the terms of the Will, a trust was created and Mary U. Rogles, who has been a national of the United States since her birth, is the sole income beneficiary thereof.

The record shows that the properties of the College were intervened by the Government of Cuba on May 3, 1961, by Resolution No. 4352 of the Directora Provincial de Educacion de la Havana (Provincial Educational Directors Office of Havana). Therefore, claimant is entitled to file this claim based upon the bond in question which represents a debt which was a charge upon intervened property as defined in Sec. 502(3) of the Act. (See Claim of Gustavus Basch, Claim No. CU-0972.)

The record reflects that on April 4, 1933, Cuba declared a moratorium on mortgage indebtedness, which was later extended to June 1942. On December 5, 1939, the maturity of the bonds was extended by the Association to February 1, 1944, and interest was reduced to 1-1/2% beginning February 1, 1939. On June 4, 1940, a new Cuban Constitution was adopted, having certain "Transitory Provisions" which extended the maturity date on mortgage indebtedness in excess of $800,000 to June 30, 1970 and provided for interest at 1%, and amortization by certain annual installments.

On June 1, 1942, a "Procedure for Deposit" was entered into by the Association with Mississippi Valley Trust Company (now the Mercantile Trust Company) as Agent, and the bondholders. Those bondholders depositing their bonds under this Procedure received registered Deposit Receipts entitling them to payment of principal and interest according to the applicable schedule of the 1940 Transitory Provisions, without subsequent presentation of the bonds. The record shows that the last principal payment made was that due on June 30, 1958, leaving the principal due on such $1000.00 bonds as $449.03; and the last interest payment made was that due on February 1, 1959. Thereafter, the Trustee declared the principal due and payable in accordance with the provisions of the Agreement of 1928.

The Commission finds that the amount of the unpaid indebtedness on claimants' bond on May 3, 1961, the date of loss, was $459.17 including the principal amount of $449.03 and the interest due on May 3, 1961, in the amount of $10.14

The Commission has decided that in certification of losses on claims determined pursuant to Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, interest should be included at the rate of 6% per annum from the date of loss to the date of settlement. (See Claim of Lisle Corporation, Claim No. CU-0644.)

Accordingly, the Commission concludes that the amount of loss sustained by claimant shall be increased by interest thereon at the rate of 6% per annum from May 3, 1961, the date of loss, to the date on which provisions are made for settlement thereof.

CERTIFICATION OF LOSS

The Commission certifies that MERCANTILE TRUST COMPANY, EVELYN ROGLES FRUHWIRTH and MARION ROGLES LINDELL, EXECUTORS of the ESTATE OF FRANCIS J. ROGLES, DECEASED succeeded to and suffered a loss, as a result of actions of the Government of Cuba, within the scope of Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, in the amount of Four Hundred Fifty-Nine Dollars and Seventeen Cents ($459.17) with interest thereon at 6% per annum from May 3, 1961 to the date of settlement.

The statute does not provide for the payment of claims against the Government of Cuba. Provision is only made for the determination by the Commission of the validity and amounts of such claims. Section 501 of the statute specifically precludes any authorization for appropriations for payment of these claims. The Commission is required to certify its findings to the Secretary of State for possible use in future negotiations with the Government of Cuba.
