FOREIGN CLAIMS SETTLEMENT COMMISSION OF THE UNITED STATES WASHINGTON, D.C. 20579

In the Matter of the Claim of

WEYERHAEUSER COMPANY

Claim No.CU-2702 CU-3421

Decision No.CU

778

Under the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended

PROPOSED DECISION

These claims against the Government of Cuba, under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, were presented by WEYERHAEUSER COMPANY, in the amounts of $10,653.62 and $1,934.32, respectively, based upon the asserted loss of payment for merchandise shipped to Cuba.

Under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 [78 Stat. 1110 (1964), 22 U.S.C. §§1643-1643k (1964), as amended, 79 Stat. 988 (1965)], the Commission is given jurisdiction over claims of nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba. Section 503(a) of the Act provides that the Commission shall receive and determine in accordance with applicable substantive law, including international law, the amount and validity of claims by nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba arising since January 1, 1959 for losses resulting from the nationalization, expropriation, intervention or other taking of, or special measures directed against, property including any rights or interests therein owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly at the time by nationals of the United States.

Section 502(3) of the Act provides:

er in state og skildet er

The term 'property' means any property, right or interest including any leasehold interest, and debts owed by the Government of Cuba or by enterprises which have been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba and debts which are a charge on property which has been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba.

Section 502(1) of the Act defines the term "national of the United States" as "(B) a corporation or other legal entity which is organized under the laws of the United States, or of any State, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, if natural persons who are citizens of the United States own, directly or indirectly, 50 per centum or more of the outstanding captial stock or other beneficial interest of such corporation or entity."

The record discloses that claimant corporation was organized in the State of Washington, and that at all times between January 18, 1900 and presentation of these claims, more than 50% of the outstanding capital stock of the claimant has been owned by United States nationals. The Commission holds that claimant is a national of the United States within the meaning of Section 502(1)(B) of the Act.

Claimant states that less than 1% of its outstanding capital stock is held by non-United States nationals.

The record contains a copy of claimant's invoice No. 04219 of August 10, 1960, reflecting the sale to Industrias Varias, S:A. of Havana, Cuba, of goods totalling $4,838.40, as to which freight, shipping and other attendant fees increased the total to $5,324.30; and a copy of its invoice No. 04226 of August 11, 1960, reflecting the sale to Industrias Varias, S.A. of goods totalling $4,838.40, as to which freight, shipping and other fees increased the total to $5,329.32. In addition, the record contains copies of claimant's invoices Nos. LEF-148-A-3 of April 30, 1960 and LEF-209-A-3 of June 22, 1960, and copies of claimant's drafts Nos. ER-120A of August 3, 1960 and ER-126-A of August 3, 1960, Amazata 3, 1960, Marketing Treight; Shipping and other fees on shipments of goods to Industrias Varias, S.A. in the amounts of $648.26 and $1,286.06. Claimant states that it has not received the aforementioned funds.

The Government of Cuba, on September 29, 1959, published its Lew 568, concerning foreign exchange. Thereafter the Cuban Government effectively precluded not only transfers of funds to creditors abread, but also payment to creditors within Cuba, by numerous, unreasonable and costly demands upon the consignees, who were thus deterred from complying with the demands of the Cuban Government.

The Commission holds that Cuban Law 568 and the Cuban Government's implementation thereof, with respect to the rights of the claimant herein, was not in reality a legitimate exercise of sovereign authority to regulate foreign exchange, but constituted an intervention by the Government of Cuba into the contractual rights of the claimant, which resulted in the taking of American-owned property within the meaning of Section 503(a) of the Act. (See the Claim of The Schwarzenbach Huber Company, FCSC Claim No. CU-0019; and the Claim of Etna Pozzolana Corporation, FCSC Claim No. CU-0049).

Accordingly, in the instant claims the Commission finds that claimant's property was lost as a result of intervention by the Government of Cuba and that, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, the loss occurred on August 14, 1960, as to $1,934.32, and on November 1, 1960, as to $10,653.62, the maturity dates for the underlying drafts.

The Commission has decided that in certification of losses on claims determined pursuant to Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, interest should be included at the rate of 6% per annum from the date of loss to the date of settlement. (See the Claim of Lisle Corporation, FCSC Claim No. CU-0644).

Accordingly, the Commission concludes that the amount of the loss sustained by claimant shall be increased by interest thereon at the rate of 6% per annum from the dates on which the loss occurred, to the date on which provisions are made for the settlement thereof.

CERTIFICATION OF LOSS

The Commission certifies that WEYERHAEUSER COMPANY suffered a loss, as a result of actions of the Government of Cuba, within the scope of Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, in the amount of Twelve Thousand Five Hundred Eighty-Seven Dollars and Ninety-Four Cents ($12,587.94) with interest thereon at 6% per annum from the respective dates of loss to the date of settlement.

Section 501 of the statute specifically precludes any authorization for appropriations for payment of these claims. The Commission is required to certify its findings to the Secretary of State for possible use in future negotiations with the Government of Cuba.
