

FOREIGN CLAIMS SETTLEMENT COMMISSION
OF THE UNITED STATES
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20579

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

GABRIEL GOMEZ

Under the International Claims Settlement
Act of 1949, as amended

Claim No. CU -3264

Decision No. CU

3815

PROPOSED DECISION

This unsigned claim against the Government of Cuba, filed under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, in the amount of $95,000.00, was presented by GABRIEL GOMEZ and is based upon the asserted loss of real and personal property in Cuba. Claimant has been a national of the United States since his naturalization in 1949.

Under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 [78 Stat. 1110 (1964), 22 U.S.C. §§1643-1643k (1964), as amended, 79 Stat. 988 (1965)], the Commission is given jurisdiction over claims of nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba. Section 503(a) of the Act provides that the Commission shall receive and determine in accordance with applicable substantive law, including international law, the amount and validity of claims by nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba arising since January 1, 1959 for losses resulting from the nationalization, expropriation, intervention or other taking of, or special measures directed against, property including any rights or interests therein owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly at the time by nationals of the United States.

Section 502(3) of the Act provides:

The term 'property' means any property, right, or interest including any leasehold interest, and debts owed by the Government of Cuba or by enterprises which have been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba and debts which are a charge on property which has been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba.

Section 504 of the Act provides, as to ownership of claims, that

(a) A claim shall not be considered under section 503(a) of this title unless the property on which the claim was based was owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly by a national of the United States on the date of the loss and if considered shall be considered only to the extent the claim has been held by one or more nationals of the United States continuously thereafter until the date of filing with the Commission.

The Regulations of the Commission provide:

The claimant shall be the moving party and shall have the burden of proof on all issues involved in the determination of his claim. (FCSC Reg., 45 C.F.R. §531.6(d) (Supp. 1967).)

Claimant has described his loss as follows:

Land	$22,500
House	52,500
Furniture & Equipment	20,000
	$95,000

By Commission letter of July 5, 1967, claimant was advised as to the type of evidence proper for submission to establish this claim under the Act. Receiving no response a "follow-up" letter was directed to claimant on August 30, 1967. Thereafter claimant requested the Commission's assistance in obtaining evidence of ownership of the property. He also submitted his own affidavit to this effect, and two pictures.

Under date of October 20, 1967 and May 28, 1968, the Commission again made suggestions as to evidence appropriate for submission.

The Commission has received only a negative report concerning real property assertedly owned by claimant. Nothing has been received from claimant as to the personalty assertedly owned by him.

The Commission finds that claimant has not met the burden of proof in that he has failed to establish ownership of rights and interests in property which was nationalized, expropriated or otherwise taken by the Government of Cuba. Thus, the Commission is constrained to deny this claim and it is hereby denied. The Commission deems it unnecessary to make determinations with respect to other elements of the claim.
