

FOREIGN CLAIMS SETTLEMENT COMMISSION OF THE UNITED STATES
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20579

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

FRANCES D. BUDAGHER

Under the International Claims Settlement
Act of 1949, as amended

Claim No. CU-3419

Decision No. CU 5097

Counsel for claimant:

Ben F. Roybal, Esq.

PROPOSED DECISION

This claim against the Government of Cuba, under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, in the amount of $301,400.00, was presented by FRANCES D. BUDAGHER and is based upon the asserted loss of real and personal property in Cuba. Claimant has been a national of the United States since her naturalization on November 28, 1949.

Under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 [78 Stat. 1110 (1964), 22 U.S.C. §§1643-1643k (1964), as amended, 79 Stat. 988 (1965)], the Commission is given jurisdiction over claims of nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba. Section 503(a) of the Act provides that the Commission shall receive and determine in accordance with applicable substantive law, including international law, the amount and validity of claims by nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba arising since January 1, 1959 for losses resulting from the nationalization, expropriation, intervention or other taking of, or special measures directed against, property including any rights or interests therein owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly at the time by nationals of the United States.

Section 502(3) of the Act provides:

The term 'property' means any property, right, or interest including any leasehold interest, and debts owed by the Government of Cuba or by enterprises which have been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba and debts which are a charge on property which has been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba.

Section 504 of the Act provides, as to ownership of claims, that

(a) A claim shall not be considered under section 503(a) of this title unless the property on which the claim was based was owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly by a national of the United States on the date of the loss and if considered shall be considered only to the extent the claim has been held by one or more nationals of the United States continuously thereafter until the date of filing with the Commission.

The Regulations of the Commission provide:

The claimant shall be the moving party and shall have the burden of proof on all issues involved in the determination of his claim. (FCSC Reg., 45 C.F.R. §531.6(d) (Supp. 1967).)

Claimant has asserted that she owned 666 acres of land, a "home in town" and personal property at or near El Barrio de Joaquin de Agüero, Camaguey Province, Cuba. Claimant submitted affidavits in support of her claim. By Commission letters of July 10, 1968, and July 31, 1968, claimant was advised, through counsel, as to the type of evidence proper for submission to establish this claim under the provisions of the Act. A reminder was sent to counsel, by Commission letter of September 18, 1968.

With letters of October 23, 1968, and early November, 1968, counsel submitted additional affidavits, including one executed by claimant herein on October 18, 1968, concerning personal property in Cuba. This data, general in nature, without explanation or supplemental supporting evidence, failed to substantiate the claim.

In Commission letters of October 7, 1969 and October 17, 1969, suggestions were again made to claimant, through counsel, concerning the further development of this claim. On February 3, 1970, counsel was invited to submit any evidence available to him within 45 days from that date, and he was informed, that, absent such evidence, it might become necessary to determine the claim on the basis of the existing record. No evidence has since been submitted.

The Commission appreciates the difficulties encountered by some claimants in establishing their claims against the Government of Cuba. However, the Commission must be guided by the evidence of record pertaining to the ownership, loss and value of the property included in each claim. Thus, the Commission finds that claimant herein has not met the burden of proof in that she has failed to establish ownership of rights and interests in property which was nationalized, expropriated or otherwise taken by the Government of Cuba. Accordingly, the Commission is constrained to deny this claim and it is hereby denied. The Commission deems it unnecessary to make determinations with respect to other elements of the claim.
