

FOREIGN CLAIMS SETTLEMENT COMMISSION
OF THE UNITED STATES
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20579

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

EUGENE A. PRINZ

Under the International Claims Settlement
Act of 1949, as amended

Claim No. CU -3702

Decision No. CU -3143

PROPOSED DECISION

This claim against the Government of Cuba, filed under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, in the amount of $157,000.00, was presented by EUGENE A. PRINZ and is based upon the asserted loss of realty, tangible personalty, shareholder interests and debts owed claimant. Claimant stated that he has been a national of the United States since his birth in the United States.

Under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 [78 Stat. 1110 (1964) 22 U.S.C. §§1643-1643k (1964), as amended, 79 Stat. 988 (1965)], the Commission is given jurisdiction over claims of nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba. Section 503(a) of the Act provides that the Commission shall receive and determine in accordance with applicable substantive law, including international law, the amount and validity of claims by nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba arising since January 1, 1959 for losses resulting from the nationalization, expropriation, intervention or other taking of, or special measures directed against, property including any rights or interests therein owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly at the time by nationals of the United States.

Section 502(3) of the Act provides:

The term 'property' means any property, right, or interest including any leasehold interest, and debts owed by the Government of Cuba or by enterprises which have been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba and debts which are a charge on property which has been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba.

Section 504 of the Act provides, as to ownership of claims, that

(a) A claim shall not be considered under section 503(a) of this title unless the property on which the claim was based was owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly by a national of the United States on the date of the loss and if considered shall be considered only to the extent the claim has been held by one or more nationals of the United States continuously thereafter until the date of filing with the Commission.

The Regulations of the Commission provide:

The claimant shall be the moving party and shall have the burden of proof on all issues involved in the determination of his claim. (FCSC Reg., 45 C.F.R. §531.6(d) (Supp. 1967).)

Claimant has asserted that he suffered losses of realty in the amount of $10,000.00, tangible personalty in the amount of $20,000.00, a shareholder interest in the Residential Development Corporation of Cuba in the amount of $100,000.00 and money owned to him by the Residential Development Corporation of Cuba in the amount of $27,000.00. Other than his own statements, claimant has submitted no evidence in support of this claim.

By Commission letter of September 20, 1967, claimant was advised as to the type of evidence proper for submission to establish this claim under the Act. On December 14, 1967, claimant was invited to submit any evidence available to him within 45 days from that date, and he was informed that, absent such evidence, it might become necessary to determine the claim on the basis of the existing record. In a letter dated December 27, 1967, claimant responded advising that he was making an effort to obtain evidence in support of this claim. No evidence was submitted. On February 27, 1968, claimant was advised that absent receipt of previously suggested evidence within 30 days, it might become necessary to make a recommendation on this claim on the basis of the existing record. No evidence or response by claimant to this correspondence was submitted.

By letter dated May 9, 1968 claimant was reminded of the Commission's previous letters, and certain additional suggestions were made to him as to evidence appropriate for submission in support of this claim. Although he was again advised to submit the suggested evidence within 30 days of that date, no reply to this correspondence has been received to date.

The Commission finds that claimant has not met the burden of proof in that he has failed to establish ownership by a national of the United States of rights and interests in property which was nationalized, expropriated or otherwise taken by the Government of Cuba. Thus, the Commission is constrained to deny this claim and it is hereby denied. The Commission deems it unnecessary to make determinations with respect to other elements of the claim.
