PROPOSED DECISION

This claim against the Government of Cuba, filed under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, was filed on behalf of RICHARD K. CROSS, as of March 15, 1967, by Atlantica del Golfo Sugar Company, through Claim No. CU-1132. Claimant, RICHARD K. CROSS, has been a national of the United States since birth.

Under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, [78 Stat. 1110 (1964), 22 U.S.C. §§1643-1643k (1964), as amended, 79 Stat. 988 (1965)], the Commission is given jurisdiction over claims of nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba. Section 503(a) of the Act provides that the Commission shall receive and determine in accordance with applicable substantive law, including international law, the amount and validity of claims by nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba arising since January 1, 1959 for losses resulting from the nationalization, expropriation, intervention or other taking of, or special measures directed against, property including any rights or interests therein owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly at the time by nationals of the United States.

Section 502(3) of the Act provides:

The term 'property' means any property, right, or interest including any leasehold interest, and debts owed by the Government of Cuba or by enterprises which have been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba and debts which are a charge on property which has been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba.

Section 504 of the Act provides, as to ownership of claims, that

(a) A claim shall not be considered under section 503(a) of this title unless the property on which the claim was based was owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly by a national of the United States on the date of the loss and if considered shall be considered only to the extent the claim has been held by one or more nationals of the United States continuously thereafter until the date of filing with the Commission.

The Regulations of the Commission provide:

The claimant shall be the moving party and shall have the burden of proof on all issues involved in the determination of his claim. (FCSC Reg., 45 C.F.R. §531.6(d) (Supp. 1967).)

Claimant asserted that he was the owner of 200 shares of stock in Atlantica del Golfo Sugar Company which he purchased prior to August 6, 1960, but which he sold sometime during 1968. The question presented here is whether a claim for such a loss is compensable under the aforesaid provisions of the Act.

Ownership of a stock interest in a foreign corporation on the date of nationalization by the Government of Cuba vests in the owner two items of property, namely, an interest in the net worth of the corporation and an interest in any claim for the nationalization. The sale of the shares in the nationalized corporation may effect transfer of either or both interests, depending upon the intention of the parties to the transaction. The burden of proving the nature of the transaction rests with the claimant.

In the instant claim, claimant has not alleged that he retained any interest in a claim for the nationalization of the corporation in question nor does the record establish that any such interest was retained. Therefore, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, the Commission concludes that when claimant sold his stock, he transferred all rights incident thereto.

Accordingly, and for the foregoing reasons, this claim is hereby denied. The Commission deems it unnecessary to determine other elements of this claim.
