FINAL DECISION

Under date of October 21, 1970, the Commission denied this claim for failure of proof.

Claimant has reiterated that she holds a 1967 stock certificate for 100 shares of Atlantica del Golfo Sugar Company, inherited in 1940. However, despite repeated suggestions from the Commission she has failed to submit any evidence in support of the claim.

Full consideration having been given to claimant's assertions and the entire record having been reviewed, the Commission finds no basis for altering its decision in this matter. Accordingly, the Proposed Decision is affirmed and entered as the Commission's Final Decision in this matter.

FOREIGN CLAIMS SETTLEMENT COMMISSION OF THE UNITED STATES

GLADYS WERLICH

Claim No. CU - 8031

Decision No. CU 5810

Under the International Claims Settlement
Act of 1949, as amended

Represented by Cia. Azucarera Atlantica del Golfo

Counsel for Cia. Azucarera Atlantica del Golfo:

PROPOSED DECISION

This claim against the Government of Cuba, filed under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, was presented by GLADYS WERLICH and is based upon the asserted loss of a stock interest. Claimant has been a national of the United States since birth.

Under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 [78 Stat. 1110 (1964) 22 U.S.C. §§1643-1643k (1964), as amended, 79 Stat. 988 (1965)], the Commission is given jurisdiction over claims of nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba. Section 503(a) of the Act provides that the Commission shall receive and determine in accordance with applicable substantive law, including international law, the amount and validity of claims by nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba arising since January 1, 1959 for losses resulting from the nationalization, expropriation, intervention or other taking of, or special measures directed against, property including any rights or interests therein owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly at the time by nationals of the United States.

Section 502(3) of the Act provides:

The term 'property' means any property, right, or interest including any leasehold interest, and debts owed by the Government of Cuba or by enterprises which have been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba and debts which are a charge on property which has been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba.

Section 504 of the Act provides, as to ownership of claims, that

(a) A claim shall not be considered under section 503(a) of this title unless the property on which the claim was based was owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly by a national of the United States on the date of the loss and if considered shall be considered only to the extent the claim has been held by one or more nationals of the United States continuously thereafter until the date of filing with the Commission.

The Regulations of the Commission provide:

The claimant shall be the moving party and shall have the burden of proof on all issues involved in the determination of his claim. (FCSC Reg., 45 C.F.R. §531.6(d) (1969).)

Claim is based on loss arising from asserted ownership of 100 shares of stock of Atlantica del Golfo Sugar Company which claimant states she inherited in 1940, and for which she states she has a certificate issued in 1967.

By Commission letter of February 3, 1969, claimant was advised as to the type of evidence proper for submission to establish this claim under the Act. Thereafter, by letter of April 23, 1970, the Commission made additional suggestions to claimant concerning the submission of supporting evidence in this matter. No evidence has since been submitted.

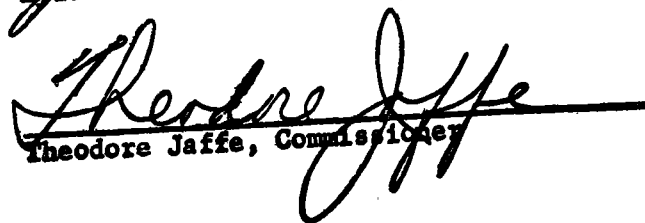

CU-8031

The Commission finds that claimant has not met the burden of proof in that she has failed to establish ownership of rights and interest in property which was nationalized, expropriated or otherwise taken by the Government of Cuba. Thus, the Commission is constrained to deny this claim and it is hereby denied. The Commission deems it unnecessary to make determinations with respect to other elements of the claim.
