

The Governments of the United States and Albania concluded an agreement for en bloc settlement of claims of United States nationals against Albania on March 10, 1995. Agreement Between the Government of the United States and the Government of the Republic of Albania on the Settlement of Certain Outstanding Claims, March 10, 1995 (entered into force April 18, 1995) ("Settlement Agreement"). Claims covered by the Settlement Agreement are the claims of United States nationals (including natural and juridical persons) against Albania arising from any nationalization, expropriation, intervention, or other taking of, or measures affecting, property of nationals of the United States prior to the date of this agreement[.]

Settlement Agreement, Article 1(a).

The claimant in this case has asserted that the property which is the subject of his claim was confiscated by the Albanian government sometime between 1945 and 1990. However, the claimant has not provided any information regarding who owned the property at the time of confiscation or the nationality of the owner at that time. The claimant has stated that he became a United States national by naturalization, but he has not specified in what year he gained United States nationality nor has he provided any evidence in that regard. By letters dated February 9, 1996 and March 26, 1996, the Commission requested this information from claimant's attorney, but no substantive response has been received to date.

The ICOSA mandates that the Commission decide claims in accordance with, inter alia, "[t]he applicable principles of international law." ICOSA section 4(a)(2), 22 U.S.C. 1623(a)(2). It is a well-established principle of international law, which this Commission has applied without exception, that a claim may be found compensable only if the property which is the subject of the claim was owned by a national of the United States when the property was expropriated or otherwise taken. See, e.g., Claim of EUGENIA D. STUPNIKOV Against Yugoslavia, Claim No. Y-2-0071, Decision No. Y-2-0003 (1967); Claim of ILONA CZIKE Against Hungary, Claim No. HUNG-2-0784, Decision No. HUNG-2-191 (1976); Claim of JOSEPH REISS Against the German Democratic Republic, Claim No. G-2853, Decision No. G-2499 (1981); Claim of TRANG KIM Against Vietnam, Claim No. V-0014, Decision No. V-0001 (1982). This principle has also been recognized by the courts of the United States. See, e.g. Haas v. Humphrey, 246 F.2d 682 (D.C. Cir. 1957), cert. denied 355 U.S. 854 (1957).

The Commission finds that there is no evidence that, at the time the property in question was assertedly taken by the Albanian government, it was owned by a national of the United States. Accordingly, the Commission must conclude that this claim is not compensable under the terms of the Settlement Agreement. The claim therefore must be and is hereby denied.

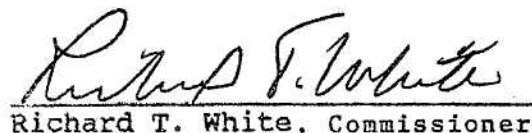

The Commission finds it unnecessary to make determinations with respect to other elements of this claim.
