TITLE 18. CRIMES AND CRIMINAL PROCEDURE
PART II. CRIMINAL PROCEDURE
CHAPTER 212. MILITARY EXTRATERRITORIAL JURISDICTION

18 U.S.C. § 3263

§ 3263. Delivery to authorities of foreign countries

(a) Any person designated and authorized under section 3262(a) [18 USCS § 3262(a)] may deliver a person described in section 3261(a) [18 USCS § 3261(a)] to the appropriate authorities of a foreign country in which such person is alleged to have violated section 3261(a) [18 USCS § 3261(a)] if—

(1) appropriate authorities of that country request the delivery of the person to such country for trial for such conduct as an offense under the laws of that country; and

(2) the delivery of such person to that country is authorized by a treaty or other international agreement to which the United States is a party.

(b) The Secretary of Defense, in consultation with the Secretary of State, shall determine which officials of a foreign country constitute appropriate authorities for purposes of this section.
