COUNT ONE

The SPECIAL AUGUST 2012 GRAND JURY charges:

1. At times material to this Indictment:

a. Defendant CONRAD ULZ owned, controlled, or used the name of at least two companies, including Citywide Financial Group and Metro Realty Services;

b. Dream House Mortgage Corp., Franklin American Mortgage, Assurity Financial Services, IndyMac Bank, Washington Mutual Bank, and HSBC Mortgage Corporation were lenders which made loans secured by mortgages (mortgage loans);

c. IndyMac Bank, Washington Mutual Bank, and HSBC Bank were financial institutions whose deposits were insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation;

d. HSBC Mortgage Corporation was a wholly-owned subsidiary of HSBC Bank.

e. Lenders required mortgage loan applicants to provide truthful information, including truthful information about the sales price of the property, the source of the down payment, any payments to the applicant for purchasing the property, the applicants' employment, income, assets, and intention to occupy the property, which information was material to the lenders' approval, terms, and funding of mortgage loans; and

f. Lenders sold the mortgage loans to other lenders and institutions (successors). Lenders disclosed that the mortgage loans could be sold and the likelihood that the mortgage loans would be sold. The information provided in loan applications and supporting documents, including the sales price of the property, the source of the down payment, any payments to the buyer for purchasing the property, and the buyers' employment, income, assets, and intention to occupy the property, was material to the successors' decisions to purchase the mortgage loans.

2. Beginning no later than in or around August 2007, and continuing at least until in or around May 2009, at Chicago, in the Northern District of Illinois and elsewhere,

CONRAD ULZ,

defendant herein, along with others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, knowingly devised, intended to devised, and participated in a scheme to defraud lenders and their successors and to obtain money and property from lenders by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, which scheme affected financial institutions and is further described below.

3. It was part of the scheme that defendant CONRAD ULZ ("ULZ") caused buyers to fraudulently qualify for 13 mortgage loans in a total amount of at least $3.2 million from lenders by making and causing to be made materially false representations in documents submitted to lenders, including loan applications and HUD-1 settlement statements, concerning, among other things, the sales price of the properties, the source of the down payments, and the buyers' employment, income, assets, and intention to occupy the property, and for the purpose of executing the scheme caused interstate wire transmissions.

4. It was further part of the scheme that ULZ recruited buyers with good credit to buy properties in the Englewood neighborhood of Chicago promising that: (1) the buyers would be paid for purchasing the properties; and (2) the buyers would not have to pay any of their own money toward the purchase of the properties, including down payments and mortgage payments.

5. It was further part of the scheme that ULZ recruited buyers to purchase properties knowing that the transactions would be financed by making false statements to lenders to obtain mortgage loans.

6. It was further part of the scheme that ULZ caused to be prepared and submitted to lenders

a. applications and supporting documents that defendant knew falsely represented that the buyers intended to occupy the properties to be purchased when defendant knew that the buyers had no intention to occupy the properties;

b. applications and supporting documents that defendant knew falsely represented the buyers' employment and income, including representing that the buyers earned a higher monthly income than they actually received;

c. applications and supporting documents, including verifications of deposit and account statements, that defendant knew falsely represented the buyers' assets, including representing that the buyers were account holders with Citywide Financial, when defendant knew that no such accounts existed; and

d. HUD-1 settlement statements that defendant knew contained false information, including false information about the sales price of the properties, the true source of the buyers' down payments, and the disbursement of loan proceeds at closings, including the undisclosed disbursement of loan proceeds to the buyers and to defendant.

7. It was further part of the scheme that ULZ provided the buyers' down payment funds for the purchase of the properties and caused to be prepared and submitted to lenders applications and HUD-1 settlement statements that defendant knew falsely represented that the buyers were the source of those down payment funds.

8. It was further part of the scheme that ULZ paid buyers for purchasing the properties and caused to be prepared and submitted to lenders HUD-1 settlement statements that defendant knew falsely represented that all of the loan proceeds would be paid to the sellers.

9. It was further part of the scheme that ULZ knowingly concealed from lenders his receipt of proceeds of the fraudulently obtained mortgage loans by causing payouts to be made at the loan closings to entities and individuals controlled by defendant and persons known and unknown to the Grand Jury.

10. It was further part of the scheme that ULZ fraudulently caused the buyers to purchase the properties located at the following addresses: (a) 5732 S. Sangamon, Chicago, Illinois, (b) 6114 S. Carpenter, Chicago, Illinois, (c) 6128 S. Carpenter, Chicago, Illinois, (d) 5037 S. Ada, Chicago, Illinois, (e) 5942 S. Morgan, Chicago, Illinois, (f) 6716 S. May, Chicago, Illinois, (g) 6841 S. Wood, Chicago, Illinois, (h) 5538 S. Green, Chicago, Illinois, (i) 5942 S. Ada, Chicago, Illinois, (j) 6640 S. Justine, Chicago, Illinois, (k) 6125 S. Wood, Chicago, Illinois, (l) 5014 S. Ada, Chicago, Illinois, and (m) 6146 S. May, Chicago, Illinois.

11. It was further part of the scheme that by the above means ULZ caused lenders and successors to incur losses of at least approximately $3,105,050.

12. It was further part of the scheme that ULZ concealed, misrepresented, and hid, and caused to be concealed, misrepresented, and hidden, the existence of the scheme, the purposes of the scheme, and the acts done in furtherance of the scheme.

13. On or about August 16, 2007, at Chicago, in the Northern District of Illinois and elsewhere,
