Summary of Recent Court Cases

NE District Man Sentenced to 36 Years in Prison for Home Invasion Murder

Rudy Andrews, a 33-year-old Northeast District of Columbia man, was sentenced on Wednesday, February 11, 2009 before the Honorable Robert Morin for a violent shooting he committed in 2007 during a home invasion in Northeast Washington. Andrews was found guilty in October 2008 by a Superior Court jury of First Degree Burglary while Armed, First Degree Murder while Armed, Possession of a Firearm during a Crime of Violence, and related offenses.

Andrews, of the 4400 block of Hunt Place, NE, Washington, D.C., was sentenced to a total of thirty-six (36) years of incarceration, with five (5) years of supervised release once he has served his sentence. Thirty-five (35) years of that sentence constitutes a mandatory minimum.

Miguel O. Tejada, a Major League Baseball (MLB) player, has pled guilty to misrepresentations to a Congressional Committee (“Committee”) investigating the wrongful use of steroids and other performance enhancing drugs in baseball.

Tejada, 34, of the Dominican Republic, entered his misdemeanor plea on February 11, 2009 to one count at a hearing in U.S. District Court in the District of Columbia before the Honorable Magistrate Judge Alan Kay. Tejada will be sentenced on March 26, 2009.

A detailed description of this Superior Court and the District Court cases are provided inside of this report.

6th District Community Prosecution Update

Tips on How to Avoid Becoming a Carjacking Victim

There have been 36 carjackings in the city this year and 12 have occurred in the Sixth District. Carjacking is a crime of opportunity; a criminal searching for the most vulnerable victim. Reduce your risk of becoming a victim by following a few simple rules: 1. Walk with a purpose and stay alert. 2. Trust your instincts – be wary of people asking for directions or passing out flyers. 3. Always approach your vehicle with keys in hand. 4. Keep your windows rolled up and doors locked. 5. Avoid driving alone, if possible. 6. Don't stop to assist strangers...call 3-1-1.

THE COURT REPORT

Rudy Andrews, a 33-year-old Northeast District of Columbia man, was sentenced on Wednesday, February 11, 2009 before the Honorable Robert Morin for a violent shooting he committed in 2007 during a home invasion in Northeast Washington. Andrews was found guilty in October 2008 by a Superior Court jury of First Degree Burglary while Armed, First Degree Murder while Armed, Possession of a Firearm During a Crime of Violence, and related offenses. (Case # 2007CF1004727, PSA 602)

Andrews, of the 4400 block of Hunt Place, NE, Washington, D.C., was sentenced to a total of thirty-six (36) years of incarceration, with five (5) years of supervised release once he has served his sentence. Thirty-five (35) years of that sentence constitutes a mandatory minimum.

FACTS: According to the government's evidence presented at trial, the homicide occurred inside an apartment at 309 54th Street, NE, Washington, D.C. (PSA 602), at approximately 3:00 a.m. on Sunday, January 28, 2007. The decedent, Louis Bigsby, was in the apartment with others before the shooting began. Mr. Bigsby had just turned twenty-three (23) years old. The apartment was frequently used by the decedent and witnesses to ingest illicit substances such as heroin and cocaine, as well as for sales of these substances.

The decedent had known the defendant, Rudy Andrews, for some time before the murder, and the relationship between the two had become tense – particularly after the decedent had, weeks before the murder, tried to hit the defendant with a pan after the defendant failed to pay money related to a drug transaction.

On January 28, 2007, the decedent was inside the bathroom at the back of the apartment when the defendant appeared at the door, which was secured by an iron gate. A witness let the defendant inside and locked the gate, before noticing that the defendant had a revolver in his hand. The defendant then demanded that the gate be opened so as to allow the entrance of a second, masked and armed individual who was standing just outside the gate.

The gate was opened, and the terrified witnesses fled the scene as the defendant and the masked man.

DISTRICT COURT CASES

A District woman, Angalia Moore, was arraigned February 5, 2009 on a 12-count indictment charging mail fraud, wire fraud, and theft.

Moore, 54, of Farragut Street, NW, Washington, D.C., also faces forfeiture of the approximate $200,000 in money alleged to have been stolen. The case has been assigned to U.S. District Judge Ellen Segal Huvelle and is set for a status hearing on February 17, 2009. If convicted of all counts at trial, Moore could face up to 37 to 46 months in prison under the Federal Sentencing Guidelines.

According to the indictment, which was returned on February 3, 2009, and unsealed today, between 2002 and 2005, Moore worked as a Chief Financial Officer for a District of Columbia company which provided services for the mentally ill. She obtained the job claiming, falsely, that she was a Certified Public Accountant and had degrees from both American University and Tulane. While with this company, Moore allegedly stole refund checks, which were payable to her employer. The indictment also alleges that Moore obtained possession of room and board checks, from the mentally ill, their guardians or trustees, or from other sources, made payable to the company, but instead of depositing the checks into her employer's bank account, she instead misappropriated them by depositing them into her own personal bank account without permission.

Later, in 2006, Moore gained employment at a District of Columbia software development firm as their controller, treasurer, and acting Chief Financial Officer. She obtained this employment, again, by falsely representing her CPA status and educational background. While with the software development firm, Moore again allegedly misappropriated a refund check made payable to her employer. She also used her position to wire transfer money to herself or into accounts which she controlled. According to the indictment, Moore also stole money by using the firm's debit card for her own expenses and by filing for expense reimbursements for expenditures which she did not pay from her own funds.

An indictment is merely a formal charge that a defendant has committed a violation of criminal laws. Every defendant is presumed innocent until and unless found guilty.

A 57-year-old Warren, Indiana man, David L. Franklin, has pled guilty to interstate transportation of child pornography and possession of child pornography.

FACTS: Franklin entered his guilty plea on February 9, 2009 in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia before U.S. Magistrate Judge Alan Kay. Franklin faces a mandatory minimum sentence of five years of imprisonment and a maximum sentence of 20 years of imprisonment for interstate transportation of child pornography. The defendant faces a maximum sentence of 10 years of imprisonment for possession of child pornography. Franklin, who is subject to enhanced penalties because the images of child pornography that he transported involved either a prepubescent minor or a minor who had not attained the age of 12 years, is expected to fall within an advisory sentencing guidelines range of 135 to 168 months of imprisonment when he is sentenced by U.S. District Judge Emmet Sullivan on May 13, 2009.

Franklin admitted during Friday's plea proceeding that between August 21, 2008, and August 29, 2008, he communicated on-line, via computer, with an individual who, unbeknownst to Franklin at the time, was a detective with the Metropolitan Police Department of the District of Columbia ("MPD"), working undercover within the District of Columbia. During that same period, Franklin transmitted to the MPD detective, via the Internet, six videos and four still images depicting the sexual abuse, by adult males, of children -- all of whom appeared to be under the age of 10 (and some of whom appeared to be under the age of two).

On September 4, 2008, the MPD detective, along with FBI agents, executed a search warrant at the home of Franklin in Warren, Indiana. On that date, law enforcement officers seized from Franklin's home, among other things, an Acer Aspire laptop. Subsequent forensic analysis of that laptop revealed six videos and four still images depicting the sexual abuse of children by adult males -- each of which previously had been transmitted to the MPD detective by Franklin. Forensic analysis of the laptop also indicates that Franklin transmitted and possessed a total of at least 454 images of child pornography.

This case was brought as part of Project Safe Childhood, a nationwide initiative to combat the growing epidemic of child sexual exploitation and abuse launched in May 2006 by the Department of Justice. Led by U.S. Attorneys' Offices and the Criminal Division's Child Exploitation and Obscenity Section (CEOS), Project Safe Childhood marshals federal, state and local resources to better locate, apprehend and prosecute individuals who exploit children via the Internet, as well as to identify and rescue victims. Miguel O. Tejada, a Major League Baseball (MLB) player, has pled guilty to misrepresentations to a Congressional Committee ("Committee") investigating the wrongful use of steroids and other performance enhancing drugs in baseball.

FACTS: Tejada, 34, of the Dominican Republic, entered his misdemeanor plea on February 11, 2009 to one count at a hearing in U.S. District Court in the District of Columbia before the Honorable Magistrate Judge Alan Kay. When Tejada is sentenced on March 26, 2009, he faces up to 1 year in prison under the relevant statute, but under the Federal Sentencing Guidelines, he faces a likely sentencing range of probation to 6 months in prison.

At the time of the taking of the guilty plea, Tejada agreed with the facts set forth in the Statement of Offense, a document he signed and which was filed with the Court. According to the Statement of Offense, on August 26, 2005, Congressional Committee staff conducted a transcribed interview in Baltimore, Maryland, of Tejada in the presence of his attorney and a Spanish language interpreter. Although Tejada was not placed under oath, the Committee staff advised Tejada of the importance of providing truthful answers.

As part of the August 26, 2005 interview, Tejada was generally questioned by Committee staff about, among other things, his knowledge of MLB players, including himself, discussing or using steroids and other banned performance enhancing substances. Tejada told the Committee staff that he never used performance-enhancing drugs and that he had no knowledge of other players using or even talking about steroids or other banned substances.

Tejada admitted today, however, that during the August 26, 2005 Congressional Committee recorded interview, he withheld pertinent information about his knowledge of a teammate's use of steroids and human growth hormone, by refusing and failing to state fully and completely the nature and extent of his knowledge of discussions with other MLB players. Additional information is set forth in the publicly available Statement of Offense.
