The Court Report

A Superior Court jury has found Randolph Scott Harris, also known as Edward Harris, 45, guilty of Assault with Intent to Kill while Armed, Assault with a Dangerous Weapon, Threats, and related firearms charges, based on conduct which occurred on March 30, 2008, at the Hart Middle School, located at 601 Mississippi Avenue SE, Washington, D.C.

FACTS: Harris, a previously convicted felon, was found guilty of the charges on February 2, 2009. The Honorable Robert I. Richter presided over the three-day trial. At sentencing, currently scheduled for April 20, 2009, the defendant faces a possible sentence of up to life imprisonment, with a mandatory-minimum sentence of 10 years.

According to the evidence presented at trial, on Sunday, March 30, 2008, the defendant went to the Hart Middle School (PSA 705) in Southeast Washington, D.C., armed with a loaded shotgun. The school was being used as a church that day. The defendant saw his estranged wife sitting in a vehicle, ran over to the vehicle with the shotgun, pointed the shotgun at his wife, and demanded that she open the vehicle. The estranged wife (who had previously been assaulted at gunpoint by the defendant five months earlier) refused to open the door.

At that point, the defendant walked over to the pastor of the church, pointed the shotgun at the back of the pastor's head, and walked the pastor at gunpoint to the vehicle. The defendant demanded that the pastor open the door to the vehicle and threatened to kill the pastor if the pastor did not open the door. When the pastor explained that he was unable to open the door, the defendant stepped back, racked the shotgun, ejected a round, and pulled the trigger. Fortunately, the weapon did not fire.

Thereafter, the defendant struck the pastor in the head with the shotgun, causing him to collapse to the ground. After striking the pastor, the defendant pointed the shotgun at two additional church members, as well as at a visitor, before fleeing the scene. Recovered from the flight path were multiple rounds of shotgun ammunition, the shotgun, a bag the defendant had used to conceal the shotgun, and the defendant's clothing. The police also recovered a roll of duct tape, and a duffle bag that contained a bullet proof vest and a sheet.

A 48-year-old Southeast District of Columbia man, Steven Holman, has been sentenced to 25 years in prison for the murder of his wife, Valerie Ballentine, in February 2008.

FACTS: Holman received his sentence on March 6, 2009 in the Superior Court of the District of Columbia before the Honorable Herbert B. Dixon, Jr. A jury of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia deliberated for approximately 4 hours before delivering a verdict on November 21, 2008, finding the defendant guilty of Second Degree Murder While Armed.

The government's evidence at trial described an argument on February 10, 2008, between the couple that started when the victim, Valerie Ballentine, told the defendant to move out of the apartment, located in the 3600 block of 22nd Street, SE (PSA 702), that the two had shared with Ms. Ballentine's grandmother, Ms. Mary Lyons. The defendant confronted his wife with a knife, then stabbed her in the back. Ms. Ballentine ran into her grandmother's bedroom, and fell or was pushed on top of Ms. Lyons, age 90, who was sitting on the bed. According to the government's evidence, while the decedent was laying on top of her grandmother, the defendant continued his assault on Ms. Ballentine, stabbing her three times in the forehead. Though Ms. Lyons had died of unrelated health issues prior to the commencement of the trial, the jury heard her testimony via a previously videotaped deposition in which she described the experience of having her granddaughter die in her arms.

During yesterday's sentencing, Judge Dixon mentioned the powerful videotaped testimony of Mary Lyons as a factor in the conviction.

District Court Cases

A District woman, Angalia Moore, was arraigned February 5, 2009 on a 12-count indictment charging mail fraud, wire fraud, and theft.

Moore, 54, of Farragut Street, NW, Washington, D.C., also faces forfeiture of the approximate $200,000 in money alleged to have been stolen. The case has been assigned to U.S. District Judge Ellen Segal Huvelle and is set for a status hearing on February 17, 2009. If convicted of all counts at trial, Moore could face up to 37 to 46 months in prison under the Federal Sentencing Guidelines.

According to the indictment, which was returned on February 3, 2009, and unsealed today, between 2002 and 2005, Moore worked as a Chief Financial Officer for a District of Columbia company which provided services for the mentally ill. She obtained the job claiming, falsely, that she was a Certified Public Accountant and had degrees from both American University and Tulane. While with this company, Moore allegedly stole refund checks, which were payable to her employer. The indictment also alleges that Moore obtained possession of room and board checks, from the mentally ill, their guardians or trustees, or from other sources, made payable to the company, but instead of depositing the checks into her employer's bank account, she instead misappropriated them by depositing them into her own personal bank account without permission.

Later, in 2006, Moore gained employment at a District of Columbia software development firm as their controller, treasurer, and acting Chief Financial Officer. She obtained this employment, again, by falsely representing her CPA status and educational background. While with the software development firm, Moore again allegedly misappropriated a refund check made payable to her employer. She also used her position to wire transfer money to herself or into accounts which she controlled. According to the indictment, Moore also stole money by using the firm's debit card for her own expenses and by filing for expense reimbursements for expenditures which she did not pay from her own funds.

An indictment is merely a formal charge that a defendant has committed a violation of criminal laws. Every defendant is presumed innocent until and unless found guilty.

A 57-year-old Warren, Indiana man, David L. Franklin, has pled guilty to interstate transportation of child pornography and possession of child pornography.

FACTS: Franklin entered his guilty plea on February 9, 2009 in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia before U.S. Magistrate Judge Alan Kay. Franklin faces a mandatory minimum sentence of five years of imprisonment and a maximum sentence of 20 years of imprisonment for interstate transportation of child pornography. The defendant faces a maximum sentence of 10 years of imprisonment for possession of child pornography. Franklin, who is subject to enhanced penalties because the images of child pornography that he transported involved either a prepubescent minor or a minor who had not attained the age of 12 years, is expected to fall within an advisory sentencing guidelines range of 135 to 168 months of imprisonment when he is sentenced by U.S. District Judge Emmet Sullivan on May 13, 2009.

Franklin admitted during Friday's plea proceeding that between August 21, 2008, and August 29, 2008, he communicated on-line, via computer, with an individual who, unbeknownst to Franklin at the time, was a detective with the Metropolitan Police Department of the District of Columbia ("MPD"), working undercover within the District of Columbia. During that same period, Franklin transmitted to the MPD detective, via the Internet, six videos and four still images depicting the sexual abuse, by adult males, of children -- all of whom appeared to be under the age of 10 (and some of whom appeared to be under the age of two).

On September 4, 2008, the MPD detective, along with FBI agents, executed a search warrant at the home of Franklin in Warren, Indiana. On that date, law enforcement officers seized from Franklin's home, among other things, an Acer Aspire laptop. Subsequent forensic analysis of that laptop revealed six videos and four still images depicting the sexual abuse of children by adult males -- each of which previously had been transmitted to the MPD detective by Franklin. Forensic analysis of the laptop also indicates that Franklin transmitted and possessed a total of at least 454 images of child pornography.

This case was brought as part of Project Safe Childhood, a nationwide initiative to combat the growing epidemic of child sexual exploitation and abuse launched in May 2006 by the Department of Justice. Led by U.S. Attorneys' Offices and the Criminal Division's Child Exploitation and Obscenity Section (CEOS), Project Safe Childhood marshals federal, state and local resources to better locate, apprehend and prosecute individuals who exploit children via the Internet, as well as to identify and rescue victims.

Miguel O. Tejada, a Major League Baseball (MLB) player, has pled guilty to misrepresentations to a Congressional Committee (“Committee”) investigating the wrongful use of steroids and other performance enhancing drugs in baseball.

FACTS: Tejada, 34, of the Dominican Republic, entered his misdemeanor plea on February 11, 2009 to one count at a hearing in U.S. District Court in the District of Columbia before the Honorable Magistrate Judge Alan Kay. When Tejada is sentenced on March 26, 2009, he faces up to 1 year in prison under the relevant statute, but under the Federal Sentencing Guidelines, he faces a likely sentencing range of probation to 6 months in prison.

At the time of the taking of the guilty plea, Tejada agreed with the facts set forth in the Statement of Offense, a document he signed and which was filed with the Court. According to the Statement of Offense, on August 26, 2005, Congressional Committee staff conducted a transcribed interview in Baltimore, Maryland, of Tejada in the presence of his attorney and a Spanish language interpreter. Although Tejada was not placed under oath, the Committee staff advised Tejada of the importance of providing truthful answers.

As part of the August 26, 2005 interview, Tejada was generally questioned by Committee staff about, among other things, his knowledge of MLB players, including himself, discussing or using steroids and other banned performance enhancing substances. Tejada told the Committee staff that he never used performance-enhancing drugs and that he had no knowledge of other players using or even talking about steroids or other banned substances.

Tejada admitted today, however, that during the August 26, 2005 Congressional Committee recorded interview, he withheld pertinent information about his knowledge of a teammate’s use of steroids and human growth hormone, by refusing and failing to state fully and completely the nature and extent of his knowledge of discussions with other MLB players. Additional information is set forth in the publicly available Statement of Offense.
