

United States v. Ali Mohamed Ali Update for April and May, 2011.

The defendant made an initial appearance on April 26, 2011. At that time, the government's motion for temporary detention was granted and the defendant was detained. A preliminary/detention hearing was scheduled for April 29, 2011 and the defendant waived his right for that detention hearing before Magistrate Judge Deborah A. Robinson. The case was then continued for status conference hearing before Judge Paul L. Friedman on May 4, 2010. On May 12, 2011, the case was then continued for a status conference hearing on May 31, 2011. On May 31, 2011, the defendant requested new counsel. A hearing on the issue of counsel is scheduled for June 17, 2011.

Next scheduled hearing is June 17, 2011.