U.S. Attorney A. Brian Albritton stated: "Prosecuting those who seek to harm and exploit children is a top priority for the United States Attorney's Office. Since the creation of Project Safe Childhood, the United States Attorney's Office for the Middle District of Florida has prosecuted over 100 cases involving the exploitation of children. The eleven cases that were charged in May 2009 in Orlando represent my Office's commitment to continue to bring cases that will serve to combat the increase of sexual predators using the Internet to entice and sexually exploit our children."

Additional arrests of other defendants are expected over the next several weeks.

An indictment or criminal complaint is merely a formal charge that a defendant has committed a violation of the federal criminal laws, and every defendant is presumed innocent unless, and until, proven guilty.

These cases are being prosecuted pursuant to the Department of Justice's Project Safe Childhood program. In February 2006, the Department of Justice created Project Safe Childhood, a national initiative designed to protect children from online exploitation and abuse. Led by the United States Attorneys Offices, Project Safe Childhood marshals federal, state, and local resources to better locate, apprehend, and prosecute individuals who exploit children via the internet, as well as to identify and rescue victims. For more information on Project Safe Childhood, please visit www.projectsafechildhood.gov.

These cases were investigated by United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the United States Secret Service, the United States Postal Inspection Service, the United States Marshals Service, the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, the Brevard County Sheriff's Office, and the Seminole County Sheriff's Office. The cases will be prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorneys Bruce S. Ambrose, Robert E. Bodnar, Vincent S. Chiu, Daniel W. Eckhart, Karen L. Gable, Roger B. Handberg, Carlos A. Perez, and Tanya Davis Wilson.
