Mills County, Iowa Resident Sentenced to 86 Months for Possession of Child Pornography

DES MOINES, IA - On December 12, 2012, Everett David Moles, a 33 year old resident of Mills County, Iowa, was sentenced to 86 months imprisonment for possession of child pornography by United States District Judge John Jarvey. Judge Jarvey also ordered Moles to serve a twenty year term of supervised release following incarceration. On August 31, 2012, Moles pled guilty to a charge of possession of child pornography after an extensive investigation into his receiving images and videos of child pornography on his cellular phone. At the time of his guilty plea, Moles admitted that from September of 2009 and continuing through May of 2011, he had images on his cellular telephone that depicted minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct.

The investigation was conducted by the Mills County, Iowa, Sheriff's Office, Mills County Attorney's Office and the Iowa Division of Criminal Investigation, and was prosecuted by the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Iowa.
