ROCHESTER MAN PLEADS GUILTY TO BAIL JUMPING

ROCHESTER, N.Y.-- U.S. Attorney William J. Hochul, Jr. announced today that Tryn Parker, 40, of Rochester, N.Y., pleaded guilty before U.S. District Judge David G. Larimer, to failing to surrender for the service of a sentence. The charge carries a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison, a fine of $250,000 or both.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Marisa J. Miller, who is handling the case, stated that the defendant was convicted of conspiracy to commit bank fraud and sentenced by Judge Larimer to a prison term in August 2010. At Parker's request, the Court allowed the defendant to remain released on bail, on the condition that Parker surrender himself to the United States Marshals Service or the Bureau of Prisons for service of his sentence. The defendant failed to surrender at the designated time and facility. Thereafter, in February 2011, the defendant was arrested in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, where he was found to be using false identification.

The plea is the culmination of an investigation on the part of Special Agents of the United States Marshals Service, under the direction of Marshal Charles Salina.

Sentencing is scheduled for January 16, 2013, at 11:00 a.m. before Judge Larimer.
