

U.S. Secret Service and Education Dept. Partner on School Safety Tool

The U.S. Secret Service and Department of Education last month announced the release of the latest tool for educators and communities to improve school safety. The interactive CD-ROM, titled “A Safe School and Threat Assessment Experience: Scenarios Exploring the Findings of the Safe School Initiative” is designed to complement the final report on the Safe School Initiative (SSI). The CD will be distributed to law enforcement and school safety personnel across the country and can be ordered via the Department of Education website at <http://www.edpubs.org/>.
