3. Computer Matching Programs

   a) List of Matching Programs

   1. Department of Education (ED) and Department of Justice (DOJ), Bureau of Justice Affairs (BJA):

      This agreement matches data from applications for student financial assistance under Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (HEA) with data from the BJA computer information system, Denial of Federal Benefits Clearinghouse System (DEBARS), to identify applicants who are ineligible for HEA benefits.

   2. Department of Justice, Debt Collection Management Staff (DCMS), and the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD):

   * The matching notice and matching agreement with HUD lapsed in February 2018, and no matching activity has DOJ provides records to HUD on judgments being collected by DOJ against individuals owing delinquent debts to the Federal Government for inclusion in a HUD computer information system, the Credit Alert Verification Reporting System (CAIVRS), to allow agencies to prescreen applicants for loans.

3. Department of Justice, DCMS, and Internal Revenue Service (IRS):

The IRS provides DOJ with the mailing addresses of taxpayers so that DOJ may notify the delinquent debtor/taxpayer of enforcement action to collect or compromise debts owed to the United States.

4. Department of Justice, Bureau of Prisons (BOP) and Bureau of Veterans Affairs, Veterans Benefits Administration (VBA):

BOP will disclose information about individuals who are in federal prison so VBA can match with recipients of benefits.

b) Links

c) Accounting

The DOJ DIB has no reason to believe that DOJ and its components have not fully adhered to the terms of the matching agreements during this reporting period.

The DOJ DIB affirms that all disclosures of agency records for use in the matching program continue to be justified.

The DOJ DIB required a favorable cost-benefit ratio for all approved matches. Each matching agreement DOJ participated in during 2018 had a favorable cost-benefit ratio.

4. Cost-Benefit Waivers

The DOJ DIB did not waive the requirement for a cost-benefit analysis for any of the approved matching agreements during 2018.

5. Disapprovals

The DOJ DIB did not disapprove any matching agreements during 2018.
