The Department of Justice today filed a proposed consent decree to end its civil antitrust case against Revco D.S., Inc., of Twinsburg, Ohio, and Zale Corporation, of Dallas, Texas.

Attorney General William French Smith said the proposed decree was filed in U.S. District Court in Dallas, Texas. It will become final after approval by the Court.

Sanford M. Litvack, Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Antitrust Division, said a complaint alleging that the proposed acquisition by Revco of the Skillern Drug Division of Zale would violate Section 7 of the Clayton Act was filed on February 2, 1981.

The complaint alleged that the effect of the acquisition may be to substantially lessen competition in the retail sale of prescription drugs in the Dallas-Fort Worth, El Paso, and Tyler, Texas areas.

The proposed decree would permit the acquisition to take place, but requires that Revco divest a total of 28 to 31 drug stores in the Dallas-Fort Worth, El Paso, and Tyler areas. Revco must divest eight specified stores, and one store from each of seventeen specified groups of stores in the Dallas-Fort Worth area. Revco is also required to divest at least one store from each of two specified groups in El Paso, and at least one of two specified stores in Tyler.
