12/18/92 Justice Consents to Proposed Termination of Linen Judgment

The Department of Justice, Antitrust Division, filed a stipulation and memorandum in U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York which, if approved by the Court, would terminate the Final Judgment. General Linen Supply & Laundry Co., Inc., Cascade Linen Supply Corp. of N.J., and NUS, Inc., as successor by acquisition of substantial assets of each of three other defendants in U.S. v. Linen Supply Institute of Greater New York, Inc., et al., Civ. No. 99-387 S.D.N.Y., filed a motion to terminate the Final Judgment in this case. The Department, in a stipulation also filed with the Court, has consented to termination of the Final Judgment, but has reserved the right to withdraw its consent for at least seventy (70) days after publication. In its papers, the Department indicated that the judgment should be terminated because its continuation no longer serves the public interest.
