v.

GALE A. NORTON, Secretary of the Interior,
et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 1:96CV01285
(Judge Lamberth)

DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE SURREPLY

The Department of the Interior Defendants ("Interior Defendants") respectfully move for leave to file the attached Defendants' Surreply to Plaintiffs' Reply re: (1) Plaintiffs' Motion to Strike Defendants' Opposition to Edith Blackwell Contempt Specifications; and (2) Motion for Enlargement of Time to Reply to Such Opposition.

Plaintiffs' Reply claims that Interior Defendants' service of The Government's Response to Plaintiffs' Bill of Particulars and Supplemental Memorandum in Support of Plaintiffs' Motion for an Order to Show Cause Why Edith Blackwell Should Not Be Held in Contempt in Connection With the Overwriting of Backup Tapes (filed Aug. 12, 2002) to Elliott Levitas was defective. Specifically, plaintiffs claim that service by mail to Elliott Levitas was not effective because of the two year absence of Mr. Levitas on plaintiffs' pleadings and the absence of Mr. Levitas's name on the pleading Interior Defendants' were responding to: Plaintiffs' "Bill of Particulars" for Edith Blackwell in Support of Plaintiffs' Motion for Order to Show Cause Why Interior Defendants, and their Counsel, Should Not be Held in Criminal Contempt for Destroying E-Mail and Supplemental Memorandum of Points and Authorities in Support of Criminal Contempt.

Interior Defendants seek leave to file a Surreply because plaintiffs did not make this argument in their original Motion, and Interior Defendants should be given an opportunity to respond since Mr. Levitas is still counsel of record and plaintiffs have specifically and recently requested that Mr. Levitas continue to receive service of pleadings in this action.

For these reasons, Interior Defendants respectfully request leave to file the attached Defendants' Surreply to Plaintiffs' Reply re: (1) Plaintiffs' Motion to Strike Defendants' Opposition to Edith Blackwell Contempt Specifications; and (2) Motion for Enlargement of Time to Reply to Such Opposition. Counsel for plaintiffs have stated that they oppose this motion.

DEFENDANTS' SURREPLY TO PLAINTIFFS' REPLY re:
(1) PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO STRIKE DEFENDANTS' OPPOSITION TO BLACKWELL CONTEMPT SPECIFICATIONS; AND (2) MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF TIME TO REPLY TO SUCH OPPOSITION

Plaintiffs' Reply claims that Interior Defendants' service of The Government's Response to Plaintiffs' Bill of Particulars and Supplemental Memorandum in Support of Plaintiffs' Motion for an Order to Show Cause Why Edith Blackwell Should Not Be Held in Contempt in Connection With the Overwriting of Backup Tapes (filed Aug. 12, 2002) on Elliott Levitas was defective. Plaintiffs state that because Mr. Levitas has not appeared on a brief in two years and because his name did not appear on Plaintiffs' Bill of Particulars, service to Mr. Levitas was ineffective. However, when a party is represented by more than one attorney, proper service upon any of the party's attorneys, under any of the means set forth in Rule 5(b), constitutes proper service upon the party. See, e.g., Daniel Int'l Corp. v. Fischbach & Moore, Inc., 916 f.2d 1061, 1063 (5th Cir. 1990) ("The burden is to serve all other parties. This does not require service on each of several counsel appearing on behalf of a party."); accord Buchanan v. Sherrill, 51 F.3d 227, 228 (10th Cir. 1995) (per curiam) (citing Daniel); Travers v. Computing Analysis Corp., 178 F.3d 1286, 1999 WL 285859  2 (4th Cir. May 7, 1999) (table) (unpublished opinion) ("When a party is represented by more than one attorney, proper service upon any one of them satisfies the requirements of Rule 5.") (citing Buchanan v. Sherrill).

Elliot Levitas entered his appearance in this litigation on March 15, 1999. See Notice of Appearance for Elliot Levitas, Exhibit 1. He remains counsel of record for plaintiffs. His active participation for purposes of service upon plaintiffs is further documented in recent correspondence. On October 31, 2001, Dennis M. Gingold wrote to J. Christopher Kohn and Mark E. Nagle requesting suspension of mail service to Mr. Gingold, Thaddeus Holt, and Keith Harper. In this letter, Mr. Gingold stated that "Mr. Levitas will continue service via U.S. mail service." (Exhibit 2) (emphasis added). On May 23, 2002, Elliott H. Levitas wrote Sandra P. Spooner stating his preference for notification by fax or email of the location of depositions to be taken by the Court Monitor. Mr. Levitas continued, "For all other purposes of service and notification, please continue to serve or notify me by first class mail as you have been doing in the past." (Exhibit 3) (emphasis added). Mr. Levitas clearly remains counsel of record for plaintiffs, and service on plaintiffs through Mr. Levitas was effective.

Additionally, defendants did not receive service of plaintiffs' Reply in any manner on August 27, 2002 – the date set forth in plaintiffs' certificate of service. Defendants received the Reply by facsimile transmission on August 29, 2002, and only after defendants' agent contacted plaintiffs to ask if the Reply had been served. Thus, there is a question as to the accuracy of plaintiffs' own certificate of service. Defendants, however, believe this petty nonsense should end here. Hopefully, plaintiffs have learned that people who live in glass houses should not cast stones.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons and those stated in Defendants' Opposition to (1) Plaintiffs' Motion to Strike Defendants' Opposition to Edith Blackwell Contempt Specifications; and (2) Motion for Enlargement of Time to Reply to Such Opposition, plaintiffs' motion to strike the Blackwell Opposition should be denied.
