

INTERDEPARTMENTAL TRIBAL JUSTICE, SAFETY, & WELLNESS SESSION 11

GOVERNMENT-TO-GOVERNMENT CONSULTATION AND TRAINING AND TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

RAPID CITY, SD · JUNE 16-18, 2010

Overall Conference Evaluation

Attendee feedback is very important to the Interdepartmental Tribal Justice, Safety, and Wellness partnership. Your opinions and comments are used to help plan future sessions. Please take a moment to complete the conference evaluation form. Thank you.

Using the scale of 5 being the most, highest, or best and 1 being the least, lowest, or worst, please answer the following questions by placing a circle around your rating.

The conference planning committee identified several key objectives for Session 11 around which the training program was developed. At the conclusion of the conference, please rate the extent to which you feel the training met the following objectives.
The agenda reflects topics raised or presented at past TJSW hosted tribal consultation sessions.	5	4	3	2	1
Provide access to resources and information available on grant opportunities across federal agencies that pertain to justice, safety, and wellness issues.	5	4	3	2	1
Bring together elected Tribal leaders and key policy decision-makers, Tribal administrators, executive directors, finance and grant administration officers, Tribal planners, grant writers, justice and law enforcement personnel, and Tribal program project coordinators and grantee officers so that individuals may share their expertise and engage participants in dialogue about best practices for Tribal community capacity building.	5	4	3	2	1

Please provide feedback about event logistics that will assist the planning committee to organize future events.

Please share with us what topics you would you like to see at future sessions and/or provide additional comments about the training:

This training was planned using a "collaborative" approach. Several program offices conducted trainings, workshops or conferences throughout the week. How does the "combined conference" format rank in comparison to having separate, individual conferences over various dates at differing locations? Does the "combined" format enhance your conference experience?
