

Tribal Justice & Safety – One OJP

Tribal Consultation, Training and Technical Assistance

Session Three

June 4 – 6, 2007

Little Creek Hotel and Casino Squaxin Island Tribe - Shelton, Washington Session Agenda

Pre-Session: Sunday, June 3, 2007
8:00 am – 5:00 pm	Tribal Youth Focus Group (TYP/OJJDP – By Invitation) The Youth Focus Group will bring together youth from across Indian country to talk about their challenges and priorities. The content of the focus group will lead to a publication on the Voice of Native Youth and the impact on Indian country youth program development.
4:00 pm – 7:30 pm	Registration Desk Open Skookum Creek Event Center Lobby
4:00 pm – 6:00 pm	Tribal Leaders Caucus T-Peeksin Elected officials and designees will have an opportunity to meet and plan for the consultation.
6:00 pm – 7:30 pm	Welcome Reception for Session Participants Defining Public Safety and Public Health Programs Skookum Creek Event Center This session will provide an opportunity for participants to hear about programs and services provided by the Federal agencies. Attend this session to network with presenters and participants, and to learn about accessing federal resources as well as new and innovative programs.
Moderators: Denise Morris, President, Alaska Native Justice Center, AK Eric Broderick, D.D.S., M.P.H, Acting Administrator, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration; Assistant Surgeon General, U.S. Public Health Services, U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services Eugenia Tyner-Dawson, Senior Advisor to the Assistant Attorney General for Tribal Affairs; Executive Director, Justice Programs Council on Native American Affairs, Office of Justice Programs, Office of the Assistant Attorney General, U.S. Dept. of Justice Presenters: Beverly Watts-Davis, Senior Advisor for Substance Abuse Prevention and Treatment, Office of the Administrator, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U. S. Dept. of Health and Human Services DuWayne Honahni, Sr., National Drug Coordinator, Office of Justice Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Dept. of the Interior, NM Ken Bowring, Administrator, Northwest Office of Native American Programs, U.S. Dept. of Housing and Urban Development, WA Adam Spector, Congressional Affairs Specialist, Congressional Affairs Division, Office of Communications, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice Video Presentation – “What About Me? – Coping with the Abduction of a Brother or Sister”
7:30 pm – 8:30 pm	Session Planners Meeting with Presenters and Moderators Skookum Creek Event Center Robert H. Brown, Jr., Senior Policy Advisor, Bureau of Justice Assistance, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice Rebecca M. Murdock, Tribal Justice Programs Manager, Criminal Justice Center for Innovation, Fox Valley Technical College, WI

Monday, June 4, 2007
7:30 am – 5:00 pm	Meeting Registration and Information Desk open throughout the day	Skookum Creek Event Center Lobby
8:00 am – 8:30 am	Opening Moderator: Kay Wallace Rhoads, Principal Chief, Sac and Fox Tribe of OK Traditional Opening, Color Guard, and Sya?Ya? Drum Group Squaxin Island Tribe, WA Welcome James L. Peters, Chairman, Squaxin Island Tribe, WA Christian Hopkins, Narragansett Tribe, RI Jeffrey C. Sullivan, U.S. Attorney, Western District of Washington, United States Attorney's Office J. Robert Flores, Administrator, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice	Skookum Creek Event Center
8:30 am – 6:00 pm	Tribal Consultation Session on Public Safety, Justice, and Public Health Kay Wallace Rhoads, Principal Chief, Sac and Fox Tribe of OK Morning Moderators: William E. Jones, Sr., Vice Chairman, Lummi Nation, WA Eugenia Tyner-Dawson, Senior Advisor to the Assistant Attorney General for Tribal Affairs; Executive Director, Justice Programs Council on Native American Affairs, Office of Justice Programs, Office of the Assistant Attorney General, U.S. Dept. of Justice	Skookum Creek Event Center
8:30 am – 9:15 am	Opening Remarks and Tribal Leader Introductions W. Ron Allen, Chairman/Executive Director, Jamestown S'Klallam Tribe; Treasurer-Executive Board, National Congress of American Indians, WA
9:15 am – 12:00 pm	Summary of Adam Walsh Act Implementation Presenters: John Dossett, General Counsel, National Congress of American Indians, OR Leslie Hagen, Assistant U.S. Attorney, Executive Office of U.S. Attorneys, Office of Sex Offender Sentencing, Monitoring, Apprehending, Registering, and Tracking, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice
12:00 pm – 1:00 pm	Working Lunch (Provided) Discussion of Adam Walsh Act Implementation (Cont'd. through lunch) Tribal Leader Discussion
1:00 pm – 6:00 pm	Tribal Consultation (Cont'd) Afternoon Moderators: Fawn R. Sharp, President, Quinalt Indian Nation, WA James L. Peters, Chairman, Squaxin Island Tribe, WA Jerold Gidner, Deputy Bureau Director, Indian Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Dept. of the Interior Eric Broderick, D.D.S., M.P.H, Acting Administrator, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration; Assistant Surgeon General, U.S. Public Health Services, U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services	Skookum Creek Event Center
1:00 pm – 2:00 pm	SAMHSA Suicide Prevention Presenters: L. Jace Killback, Tribal Leader, Northern Cheyenne Reservation, MT Ronald K. Oldman, Northern Arapahoe Tribe Business Council, WY New SAMHSA HIV/AIDS Initiative for Indian Country Facilitators: Beverly Watts-Davis, Senior Advisor for Substance Abuse Prevention and Treatment Office of the Administrator, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration U. S. Dept. of Health and Human Services Love Foster-Horton, Public Health Advisor, Project Officer, HIV/AIDS Initiative for Indian Country, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration U. S. Dept. of Health and Human Services Tribal Leader Discussion
2:00 pm – 3:00 pm	Law Enforcement and Staffing Law Enforcement Agencies Presenters: Joseph Little, Associate Director, Division of Tribal Courts, Office of Justice Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Dept. of the Interior Tribal Leader Discussion
3:00 pm – 4:00 pm	Inter-jurisdictional Issues Presenters: Lawrence Baca, Deputy Director, Office of Tribal Justice, U.S. Dept. of Justice Tribal Leader Discussion
4:00 pm – 5:00 pm	Tribal Detention and Treatment Facilities Presenters: Deirdre Wilson, Supervisory Correction Specialist, Office of Justice Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Dept. of the Interior Tribal Leader Discussion
5:00 pm – 5:45 pm	Grants and Resources Presenters: Eugenia Tyner-Dawson, Senior Advisor to the Assistant Attorney General for Tribal Affairs; Executive Director, Justice Programs Council on Native American Affairs, Office of Justice Programs, Office of the Assistant Attorney General, U.S. Dept. of Justice Robert H. Brown, Jr., Senior Policy Advisor, Bureau of Justice Assistance, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice Tribal Leader Discussion
5:45 pm – 6:00 pm	Summary and Closing Comments
6:00 pm	Adjourn
Evening	On Your Own

Tuesday, June 5, 2007

8:00 am – 5:00 pm	Meeting Registration and Information Desk	Skookum Creek Event Center Lobby
8:30 am – 8:35 am	Opening and Review of Day's Agenda Morning Moderator: Laura Ansera, Tribal Youth Coordinator, Office of Policy Development, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept of Justice Patricia Carter, Youth Ambassador, National Congress of American Indians (NCAI), ID	Skookum Creek Event Center
8:35 am – 9:30 am	Tribal Youth Highlights and Promising Practices – Panel Discussion Panelists: Christine Porter and Gabriela Balderas, Fort McDowell Yavapai, AZ Jeremiah George, Cultural Coordinator and Madeena Rivera, Chairperson, Youth Council, Squaxin Island Tribe, WA Melita (Chepa) Valandra, BIA Social Services, Crow Creek Agency, SD Lori Head, Early Head Start Program, Crow Creek Reservation, SD; Member, Standing Rock Sioux Tribe, ND/SD During this general assembly session participants will learn about promising approaches to addressing prevention and intervention strategies. Learn from youth about what is working and also about the challenges they face in their communities. Tribal Youth Program, UNITY, and BIA program examples will provide the framework for discussion by the youth who are involved in these programs.	Skookum Creek Event Center
9:30 am – 9:45 am	Review Program Materials, CEU Forms, Agenda for June 5 and 6	Skookum Creek Event Center
9:45 am – 10:00 am	Break (Sessions will continue in workshop rooms after the break)

Tuesday, June 5, 2007 WORKSHOPS 10:00 am – 11:30 am

2-1 Tribal Criminal History Record Improvement Program (T-CHRIP) Steven W. Perry, Statistician, Law Enforcement, Adjudication, and Federal Statistics, Bureau of Justice Statistics, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice Ada Pecos Melton, President, American Indian Development Associates, NM The development of statistics on crime and the administration of justice in Indian Country and improved tribal data systems will enable tribal jurisdictions to better manage justice resources, develop crime prevention programs, and participate in national information systems. The U. S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS), in the Office of Justice Programs has taken a multi-faceted approach to improve Indian Country capacity to collect, analyze, and report criminal justice information and statistics. The Tribal Criminal History Record Improvement Program (T-CHRIP) was created to improve public safety in Indian Country by enhancing the quality, completeness, and accessibility of criminal history record information and by facilitating the implementation of criminal justice and non-criminal justice background check systems. Preliminary program results from the T-CHRIP FY 2004 pilot study, FY 2005 and FY 2006 grants, and FY 2007 objectives will be explored in this session. Variations in the types of grant recipients, tribal cultural perspectives in technological infrastructure, and long term tribal record automation, justice agency integration, and information sharing processes will also be discussed during this workshop.	Skookum Creek Event Center
2-2 The Native American Connection and the Navajo Nation Law Enforcement Empowerment Pilot Project DuWayne Honahni, Sr., National Drug Coordinator, Office of Justice Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Dept. of the Interior, NM Edward Thompson, Special Agent, Drug Enforcement, Office of Justice Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Dept. of the Interior, NM Wallace Billie, Sergeant, Navajo Nation Dept. of Law Enforcement, AZ This session describes the criminal/drug connection between Native Americans and Hispanic drug trafficking organizations. Because of the impact of this connection, the Navajo LE Empowerment Initiative is the Navajo Nation's way of confronting the problem and what they are doing to help themselves as it pertains to Law Enforcement.	Sa-HehWa-Mish A
2-3 Methamphetamine in Tribal Detention Facilities Deirdre Wilson, Supervisory Correction Specialist, Office of Justice Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Dept. of the Interior Robert Smith, Correctional Officer, Nisqually Tribe, WA This session describes methamphetamine considerations in detention facilities. This session also includes answers to questions about BIA/Tribal Detention issues.	Sa-HehWa-Mish B
2-4 Co-Occurring Disorders Elizabeth Lopez, Ph.D., Public Health Analyst, Division of Policy Coordination, Office of Policy, Planning and Budget, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services SAMHSA has identified Co-Occurring Mental and Substance Abuse Disorders as a top program priority for the agency. As a key Program and Priority Matrix Area, the purpose of the SAMHSA Co-Occurring Program Matrix Area is to expand and improve prevention, appropriate treatment and other supportive services to individuals with and/or at risk for co-occurring disorders. This session will provide an overview of SAMHSA's strategy and initiatives to address people with and at risk for co-occurring substance abuse and mental disorders. A number of current and upcoming co-occurring disorder related initiatives will be discussed including plans for a Tribal Policy Academy this fall.	Squi-Aitl

Tuesday, June 5, 2007 WORKSHOPS 10:00 am – 11:30 am (Cont'd.)

2-5 Center for Substance Abuse Treatment Grant Programs

T-Peeksin

Michael Yesenko, Lead Public Health Advisor, Division of Pharmacologic Therapies, Division of State and Community Assistance, Center for Substance Abuse Treatment, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services

This session will provide an overview of SAMHSA's Center for Substance Abuse Treatment (CSAT) grant programs, including the Drug Treatment Courts program and the Screening, Brief Intervention, Referral and Treatment Program (SBIRT). Plans will also be discussed for culturally-relevant tribal technical assistance through a future partnership between CSAT's Addiction Technology Transfer Centers and Regional Indian Health Boards.

2-6 Tribal Youth Program Session: Introductions, Tribal Roll Call, and Accessing Training and Technical Assistance

Grand Ballroom I-II

Laura Ansera, Tribal Youth Coordinator, Office of Policy Development, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept of Justice

Margaret Flores, Tribal Youth Program Manager, Criminal Justice Center for Innovation, Fox Valley Technical College, WI

All federally recognized tribes are eligible to access technical assistance support for youth in their communities through OJJDP's Tribal Youth Program (TYP). The session will provide information on the TYP and how to access training and technical assistance. Grantee participants will be part of an introductory roll call. This session will also provide an overview of training opportunities available through TYP.

2-7 Project Updates, Accessing Technical Assistance and Resources in Support of IASA Grant Programs

Grand Ballroom III

Gerry Cavis, U.S. Secret Service (Retired), National Security Specialist, Criminal Justice Center for Innovation, Fox Valley Technical College, WI

Dave Raasch, Program Manager, Criminal Justice Center for Innovation, Fox Valley Technical College, WI

During this session attendee's will be provided a tutorial on how to contact and access the available training, technical assistance, and other resources through Fox Valley Technical College and the other technical assistance provider partners for the IASA Program. The session objectives include an introduction of the FVTC staff and programs; review of the TA request process, as well as an open discussion of technical assistance, training, reporting and other program benefits.

2-8 Tribal Courts Assistance Program Session: Welcome and Introduction to Training,

Little Skookum Ballroom A & B

Technical Assistance and Online Resources Tribal Courts Assistance Program Grantee Session

Robert H. Brown, Jr., Senior Policy Advisor, Bureau of Justice Assistance, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice

Melissa Johnson, Administrative Assistant, Tribal Judicial Institute, School of Law, Univ. of ND

The Tribal Courts Assistance Program provides resources to assist tribes in developing, implementing and enhancing American Indian and Alaska Native tribal justice systems. This session will provide participants with a more detailed overview of the Tribal Courts Assistance program, examples of initiatives that have been funded through this program as well as training and technical assistance associated with the Program. Additional information shall be provided to demonstrate web-based resources that are available to support the tribes during the planning, implementation and enhancement of tribal justice systems.

Cyber Lab – Computers and Grants.gov Registration and Hands-On Training - Open Lab/ Walk In

Skookum Creek Event Center Lobby

Christopher Smith, Training Coordinator, Office of the Chief Information Officer, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice

June 5, 2007 11:30 am – 1:00 pm Lunch (On your own) (Sessions will continue in breakout rooms after lunch)

Strategies And Challenges In Tribal Youth Working Lunch Included (Tribal Youth Program – Grantees Only)

Grand Ballroom I & II

Program Implementation - Facilitated Discussion: Tribal Youth Program Grantee Session

Gerry Cavis, U.S. Secret Service (Retired), National Security Specialist, Criminal Justice Center for Innovation, Fox Valley Technical College, WI

Tuesday, June 5, 2007 WORKSHOPS 1:00 pm – 2:30 pm

2-9 Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006

Skookum Creek Event Center

Leslie Hagen, Assistant US Attorney, Executive Office of U.S. Attorneys, Office of Sex Offender Sentencing, Monitoring, Apprehending, Registering, and Tracking, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice

John Dossett, General Counsel, National Congress of American Indians, OR

The Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006, P.L. 109-248, contains a section that requires tribal governments to affirmatively elect to comply with the mandates of the Act by July 27, 2007. If a tribe fails to pass a resolution stating its intention to comply with the Act by this date, the tribe will be treated as though it has delegated its authority under the Act to the State. The state would then have the right to enter tribal lands to carry out and enforce the requirements of the Act. A tribe that passes a resolution choosing to opt-in to participation in the national sex offender registry will have several years to develop a system to come into compliance with the requirements of the Act.

2-10 Tribal Courts Review Process

Sa-HehWa-Mish A

Joseph Little, Associate Director, Division of Tribal Courts, Office of Justice Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Dept. of the Interior

Judge Elbridge Coochise, Chief Justice (Retired), Coochise Consulting, AZ

In 1996 the BIA conducted initial reviews of 25 courts in the 12 BIA regions. The reviews were intended to determine the level of federal funds to support Tribal Courts from the Department of the Interior. Phase one of this assessment was completed in September of 2006. This session describes the review of tribal courts to see that they are operating effectively and reviews the draft publication of findings.

Tuesday, June 5, 2007 WORKSHOPS 1:00 pm – 2:30 pm (Cont'd.)

2-11 Community Based Tribal Code Development

Sa-HehWa-Mish B

Heather Valdez Singleton, Deputy Director, Tribal Law and Policy Institute, CA
Maureen White Eagle, Consultant, Tribal Law and Policy Institute, MN

There are very few Tribal Sexual Assault codes, and of those that do exist, many are developed outside the community, without regard to the unique culture, history and tradition of the tribe and without utilizing the local resources. This session will describe a community based tribal sexual assault code development process utilizing a workbook process that has been developed to address these issues. Special attention will be given to the unique issues that arise in developing codes that address sexual assault.

2-12 Strategic Prevention Framework State Incentive Grants

Squi-Aitl

Bettina Scott, Ph.D., Public Health Advisor, Division of State Programs, Center for Substance Abuse Prevention, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services

Strategic Prevention Framework State Incentive Grants (SPF SIGs) advance community-based programs, policies or practices and/or community infrastructure to address substance abuse and related problems in communities (includes Tribes and tribal organizations). The strategic prevention framework is built on a community-based risk and protective factors approach to prevention and a series of guiding principles that can be utilized at the federal, state/tribal and community levels. The focus of the grants and the Strategic Prevention Framework is the development of comprehensive plans that ultimately reduce substance abuse and related problems.

2-13 Addiction Technology Transfer Center – Regional Indian Health Board Partnership Focus Group

T-Peeksin

Mike Yesenko, Lead Public Health Advisor, Division of Pharmacologic Therapies, Division of State and Community Assistance, Center for Substance Abuse Treatment, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services

The Center for Substance Abuse Treatment (CSAT) is seeking comments on a new project planned for FY 2008 to provide culturally relevant technical assistance in tribal communities through a partnership between CSAT's Addiction Technology Transfer Centers and Regional Indian Health Boards.

2-14 Assessing Risk and Protective Factors Tribal Youth Program Grantee Session

Grand Ballroom I & II

Patrick Dunckhorst, Program Manager, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice
Juliette Mackin, Ph.D., Senior Research Associate, NPC Research, OR
Michael Guilfoyle, Juvenile Justice Specialist, FirstPic, Inc., MD

This session will provide an overview of the concept of risk assessment, the difference between and importance of risk and protective factors, and the role of assessment in providing quality juvenile crime prevention services. It will include a description of a risk assessment tool used with Oregon's nine federally recognized tribes to assess risk for juvenile offending, including the content of the instrument and its purposes.

2-15 Tribal Youth Justice Programs Indian Alcohol and Substance Abuse Program Grantee Session

Grand Ballroom III

Denise Morris, President, Alaska Native Justice Center, AK
Joseph A. Garoutte, Advocate/Special Projects Coordinator, Alaska Native Justice Center, AK
Deborah R. Wing, Director of Program Operations, Alaska Native Justice Center, AK

This session will focus on using multi-agency/team approaches to address juvenile accountability. The focus will be on programs that incorporate cultural values and practices to successfully diverting or reintegrating youth back into their communities.

2-16 Innovative Strategies for Implementing and Sustaining Tribal Wellness Courts (Part One)

Little Skookum Ballroom A & B

Dale Brien, Program Director, Healing to Wellness Court, Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa Indians, ND

Wellness Courts are an integral element of tribal justice systems which provide intensive continuous judicial supervision and a coordinated and supervised delivery of a wide-range of support services, such as alcohol and substance abuse treatment, mental health services, and prevention education. These sessions will highlight Tribal Wellness courts, how they were implemented, and how they have been sustained in Tribal communities. The presenter is an administrator of a Tribal Wellness Court.

Cyber Lab – Computers and Grants.gov Registration and Hands-On Training - Open Lab/ Walk In

Skookum Creek Event Center Lobby

Christopher Smith, Training Coordinator, Office of the Chief Information Officer, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice

2:30 pm – 2:45 pm Break (Sessions will continue in breakout rooms after the break)

Tuesday, June 5, 2007 WORKSHOPS 2:45 pm – 4:15 pm

2-17 Drug Endangered Children

Skookum Creek Event Center

James Warren, Administrator, Division of Criminal Investigation, Wisconsin Dept. of Justice, WI
Melita (Chepa) Valandra, BIA Social Services, Crow Creek Agency, SD
Cindy Giese, Special Agent, Division of Criminal Investigation, Wisconsin Dept. of Justice, WI

This session will discuss child protection and child welfare service programs to address the needs of youth in families and households where drugs are manufactured and/or abused. The session will include an overview of the legislation, regulations, and agency oversight infrastructure regarding child protective services in Indian Country. Special emphasis will be given to the impact of drugs on practice and service delivery in Indian Country, as well as how other funding sources through SAMHSA and OJJDP can be used to complement the services provided by BIA.

2-18 Methamphetamine National Initiatives

Sa-HehWa-Mish A

DuWayne Honahni, Sr., National Drug Coordinator, Office of Justice Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Dept. of the Interior, NM
Heather Dawn Thompson, Director, Intergovernmental Affairs, National Congress of American Indians
Trudy Anderson, Project Coordinator, Indian Country Methamphetamine Initiative – Public Health, U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services, WA

This session describes National coalitions being formed to address the many areas communities are impacted by methamphetamine. Presentations will be made by BIA, OJS, NCAI and SAMHSA regarding their programs and services.

2-19 Re-Weaving the Fabric of your Community with Federal Funds

Sa-HehWa-Mish B

Beverly Watts-Davis, Senior Advisor for Substance Abuse Prevention and Treatment, Office of the Administrator, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U. S. Dept. of Health and Human Services

This workshop introduces the attendees to tips on how to write successful Federal grants. This session will explore the various Federal funding grants and how to leverage them to meet the comprehensive need of a Tribal community.

2-20 Methamphetamine Grants Program

Squi-Aitl

Bettina Scott, Ph.D., Public Health Advisor, Division of State Programs, Center for Substance Abuse Prevention, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services

The methamphetamine grants program supports the expansion of methamphetamine prevention, interventions and/or infrastructure development by assisting localities (including Tribes and tribal organizations) to expand prevention interventions that are effective and evidence-based and/or to increase capacity through infrastructure development. The goal is to intervene effectively to prevent, reduce or delay the use and/or spread of methamphetamine abuse.

2-21 Keeping up with the Changing World of Financial Management (offered twice)

T-Peeksin

Amy Callaghan, Senior Advisor, Office of the Assistant Attorney General, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice

This session is critical for those tribes having/receiving DOJ related grants. It will cover the financial accounting systems, including allowable costs, financial status reports (SF 269), audit requirements, and grant adjustment notices (electronic GAN's).

2-22 Establishing Data Collection Protocols and Tracking Performance Measures Tribal Youth Program Grantee Session

Grand Ballroom I

Janet Chiancone, Research Coordinator, Office of Policy Development, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept of Justice
Patricia San Antonio, Senior Evaluation Specialist, CSR, Inc. , VA
Sarah Wygant, Research Assistant, CSR, Inc. , VA

Participants will have an opportunity to meet with experts in data collection and performance measure development to discuss the process for identifying program goals and evaluation questions. The presenters will help participants identify performance measures based on program evaluation and help determine the data needed for effective performance measures. They will also discuss ways to collect and track data.

2-23 Strength-Based Youth Delinquency Prevention Programming Tribal Youth Program Grantee Session

Grand Ballroom II

Patrick Dunckhorst, Program Manager, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice
David J. Rogers, Tribal Law Enforcement Specialist, Criminal Justice Center for Innovation, Fox Valley Technical College, WI

The goal of this session is to impart information that will help tribes strengthen norms against drug use in all prevention settings, including the family, the school and the tribal community. The session will help participants define evidence- and strength-based delinquency prevention programs, and identify a process to define risk and protective factors. Participants will identify components of prevention programs that are age-specific, developmentally appropriate, and culturally sensitive. The session will focus on designing prevention programs to enhance "protective factors" and move toward reversing or reducing known "risk factors" to develop, implement and sustain family-focused prevention efforts.

2-24 Developing Tribal Codes for Alcohol, Methamphetamine, and Other Drug Offenses

Grand Ballroom III

Judge BJ Jones, Director, Tribal Judicial Institute, School of Law, Univ. of ND

This session will focus on practical considerations relating to alcohol and substance abuse when developing or otherwise amending tribal codes and ordinances.

Tuesday, June 5, 2007 WORKSHOPS 2:45 pm – 4:15 pm (Cont'd.)

2-25 Innovative Strategies for Implementing and Sustaining Tribal Wellness Courts (Part Two) Little Skookum Ballroom A & B

Tribal Courts Assistance Program Grantee Session

Dale Brien, Program Director, Healing to Wellness Court, Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa Indians, ND

Wellness Courts are an integral element of tribal justice systems which provide intensive continuous judicial supervision and a coordinated and supervised delivery of a wide-range of support services, such as alcohol and substance abuse treatment, mental health services, and prevention education. These sessions will highlight Tribal Wellness courts, how they were implemented, and how they have been sustained in Tribal communities. The presenter is an administrator of a Tribal Wellness Court.

Cyber Lab – Computers and Grants.gov Registration and Hands-On Training - Open Lab/ Walk In Skookum Creek Event Center Lobby

Christopher Smith, Training Coordinator, Office of the Chief Information Officer, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice

4:15 pm – 4:30 pm Break (Sessions will continue in Skookum Creek Event Center after the break)

4:30 pm – 5:00 pm Skookum Creek Event Center

Afternoon Moderators:

Steven W. Perry, Statistician, Law Enforcement, Adjudication, and Federal Statistics, Bureau of Justice Statistics, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice

Judge Elbridge Coochise, Chief Justice (Retired), Coochise Consulting, AZ

Warm Fires Community Home - Working to Provide Shelter for Homeless

Patricia Carter, Youth Ambassador, National Congress of American Indians (NCAI), ID

5:00 pm General Assembly Session Adjourn

7:00 pm – 8:00 pm Redefining Grants Administration Skookum Creek Event Center

and Identifying FY 2008 DOJ Resource Opportunities

Eugenia Tyner-Dawson, Senior Advisor to the Assistant Attorney General for Tribal Affairs; Executive Director, Justice Programs Council on Native American Affairs, Office of Justice Programs, Office of the Assistant Attorney General, U.S. Dept. of Justice

Robert H. Brown, Jr., Senior Policy Advisor, Bureau of Justice Assistance, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice

Wednesday, June 6, 2007

8:00 am – 5:00 pm Meeting Registration and Information Desk Skookum Creek Event Center Lobby

8:30 am – 8:35 am Opening and Review of Day's Agenda Skookum Creek Event Center

Morning Moderator:

DuWayne Honahni, Sr., National Drug Coordinator, Office of Law Enforcement Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Dept. of the Interior, NM

8:35 am – 9:30 am Housing in Tribal Communities: "Tribal Decisions, Tribal Solutions" Skookum Creek Event Center

Ken Bowring, Administrator, Northwest Office of Native American Programs, U.S. Dept. of Housing and Urban Development, WA

Wendy Lawrence, Director, Makah Tribe Housing Department, WA

Diana Phair, Executive Director, Lummi Tribal Housing Authority, WA (Invited)

This panel highlights the Native American Housing Assistance and Self-Determination Act (NAHASDA), the challenges Tribes' have when dealing with resident occupancy issues, and the solutions that result from collaboration among tribal departments.

9:30 am – 10:15 am Tribal Youth – Research, Statistics, and Evaluation Skookum Creek Event Center

Steven W. Perry, Statistician, Law Enforcement, Adjudication, and Federal Statistics, Bureau of Justice Statistics, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice

Janet Chiancone, Research Coordinator, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice

Winnie Reed, Chief, Crime Control and Prevention Research Division, Office of Research and Evaluation, National Institute of Justice, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice

This session will start with an overview of recent data available on the trends in juveniles incarcerated in Indian Country as reported by the Jails in Indian Country Survey conducted by the Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS). An overview will then be given of the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention's (OJJDP) current research projects that focus on tribal youth and communities, including an evaluation of a juvenile wellness court, a qualitative study examining the implementation of tribal youth programs, and a process evaluation of OJJDP's Tribal Youth Program grants. Next, an overview will be provided of the National Institute of Justice's (NIJ) research and evaluation with a focus on tribal youth and communities including an assessment of minority youth overrepresentation in the Alaska juvenile justice system and the results of the CIRCLE Project Evaluation in one of the communities studied. Highlights of study goals will be provided, as well as how to get more information.

10:15 am – 10:30 am Break (Sessions will continue in workshop rooms after the break)

June 6, 2007 WORKSHOPS 10:30 am – 12:00 pm

3-1 Suicide Prevention Strategies

Skookum Creek Event Center

Michele Herman, Project Officer, Child Adolescent Family Branch, Center for Mental Health Services, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration

An overview of the various Suicide Prevention initiatives at SAMHSA in which Tribes and Tribal organizations are currently being funded will be provided. Grant activities and organizations assisting in the effort will also be described. Through activities including the State-Sponsored Youth Suicide Prevention and Early Intervention grant program and SAMHSA Emergency Response Grants, SAMHSA is working closely with tribal communities to provide culturally-relevant and replicable suicide prevention strategies. Additional information and resources will be provided in response to participant's questions and needs.

3-2 Strategies and Resources to Support Economic Development in Indian Country

Sa-HehWa-Mish A

Mike Taylor, Attorney, Tulalip Tribe, WA
Lance Morgan, Executive Director, Ho Chunk Community Development Corporation, NE
Judge BJ Jones, Chief Judge, Sisseton-Wahpeton Oyate and Prairie Island Indian Communities, SD
William Largent, National Director, Office of Native American Affairs, U.S. Small Business Administration
Jon DeVaney, Washington State Rural Development, U.S. Dept. of Agriculture, WA

This session will highlight efforts of the Tulalip Tribe, Sisseton-Wahpeton Oyate Tribe, Prairie Island Indian Community, and the Winnebago Tribe with opportunities for questions and answers. The presentations will include a general overview, key steps in planning, economic development planner criteria, and particular attention will focus on essential legal infrastructure to accomplish these tasks. Representatives from the U.S. Small Business Administration - Office of Native American Affairs and U.S. Department of Agriculture - Rural Development will be available to share information on resources.

3-3 Police Academy and Methamphetamine Courses

Sa-HehWa-Mish B

Jonathan Whitefoot, Special Agent, Indian Police Academy, NM

This session describes the various basic and advanced trainings, to include methamphetamine and specialized drug training, being offered by the Indian Police Academy in cooperation with the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center.

3-4 Grants Administration/Management

Squi-Aitl

Kathleen Sample, Center for Substance Abuse Treatment Team Leader, Division of Grants Management, Office of Program Services, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services

The Division of Grants Management will present the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration's pre application process from introducing the applicant the PHS-5161-1 (Application for Federal Assistance) and completion of this document. In addition, provide the applicant with the knowledge regarding how the application is reviewed internally by this office prior to funding and explain some of the typical post award requirements of the grant.

3-5 Moving your Strategy Forward: Action Plans for TYP Grant Implementation (Follow-up to CAPPs for 2006 TYP Grantees)

Grand Ballroom I

Laura Ansera, Tribal Youth Coordinator, Office of Policy Development, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept of Justice
Gerry Cavis, U.S. Secret Service (Retired), National Security Specialist, Criminal Justice Center for Innovation, Fox Valley Technical College, WI

During this session, grantees will continue their CAPPs planning to: 1) Identify and assess their current status, 2) Identify accomplishments and set "next steps and goals" 3) Review and conduct 30 - 60 - 90 planning exercise with their grant, 4) Identify/discuss problems and strategies, 5) Assess team building and working together strategies.

3-6 Program Sustainability Tribal Youth Program Grantee Session

Grand Ballroom II

Ruby Qazilbash, Program Manager, Office of Policy Development, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept of Justice
Patricia San Antonio, Senior Evaluation Specialist, CSR, Inc., VA
Sarah Wygant, Research Assistant, CSR, Inc., VA

Has your community lost a good program because of insufficient funding? Community programs frequently end when the funding for the initiative ends. There are ways to build sustainability into a program from the beginning. Building this infrastructure into programs can make the difference between sustaining programs and having to close the door on a valuable project or program. After this session, participants will be able to identify the major elements of sustainable programs and identify the planning phases of a program.

3-7 Developing Multi-Jurisdictional Partnerships

Grand Ballroom III

James Warren, Administrator, Division of Criminal Investigation, Wisconsin Dept. of Justice
Susan WhiteHorse, Manager, Clearinghouse for Missing Children and Adults, Division of Criminal Investigation, Wisconsin Dept. of Justice
Bill Blake, Sergeant, Minneapolis Police Dept., MN
Mark Waukau, Chief of Police, Menominee Tribal Police Dept., WI

This session discusses that, because crime is not limited to jurisdictional boundaries, there is an increased emphasis on the importance of agencies "Working Together To Serve Better." However, to insure clarity, the development of operational relationships through the use of MOA's and MOU's is a critical component. An important matter such as the need to recognize sovereignty and government-to-government agreements is highlighted through example. Successful accomplishments through positive "can do" attitudes will be shared.

June 6, 2007 WORKSHOPS 10:30 am – 12:00 pm (Cont'd.)

3-8 Building Better and Stronger Tribal Justice Systems Tribal Courts Assistance Program Grantee Session Little Skookum Ballroom A & B

Robert H. Brown, Jr., Senior Policy Advisor, Bureau of Justice Assistance, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice
Michelle Rivard Parks, Associate Deputy Director, Tribal Judicial Institute, School of Law, University of ND

Training and technical assistance is a key component in helping tribes build better and stronger justice systems. This session will provide conference participants with information relating to national, regional, and local training and technical assistance that is available to tribes under the Tribal Courts Assistance Program. Participants will be provided with an overview of services available, procedures to access services, and provider contact information.

3-9 Keeping up with the Changing World of Financial Management (offered twice) Steh-Chass (near T-Peeksin)

Amy Callaghan, Senior Advisor, Office of the Assistant Attorney General, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice

This session is critical for those tribes having/receiving DOJ related grants. It will cover the financial accounting systems, including allowable costs, financial status reports (SF 269), audit requirements, and grant adjustment notices (electronic GAN's).

Cyber Lab – Computers and Grants.gov Registration and Hands-On Training - Open Lab/ Walk In Skookum Creek Event Center Lobby

Christopher Smith, Training Coordinator, Office of the Chief Information Officer, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice

12:00 pm – 1:30 pm Lunch (On your own) (Sessions will continue in breakout rooms after lunch)

June 6, 2007 WORKSHOPS 1:30 pm – 3:00 pm

3-10 Washington State-Tribal Relationships and Collaboration Skookum Creek Event Center

J. Scott Blonien, Senior Assistant Attorney General, Chief, Criminal Justice Division, State of Washington
Paul Perz, Managing Director, Washington State Department of Community, Trade, and Economic Development, WA
Craig Bill, Director, Washington State Office on Indian Affairs, WA (Invited)
Don McCoy, Representative, 38th Legislative District, Washington State, WA (Invited)

The State of Washington has worked extensively with tribes and tribal governments to establish and maintain effective working relationships that address many areas of economic development, justice system development, and environmental concerns. This session will provide an opportunity to discuss current activities of the Washington State collaborative partnership; sharing strategies, successes and challenges.

3-11 Supporting Economic Development Projects in Indian Country Sa-HehWa-Mish A

Shawn Real Bird, Economic Development Director, Crow Tribe, MT
William Largent, U.S. Small Business Administration

This session will highlight the Crow Nation on its efforts to update policies and procedures to support community and economic development.

3-12 Ideas from Alaska: Protecting Children and Culture While Developing Codes and Youth Courts Sa-HehWa-Mish B

Lisa Jaeger, Tribal Government Specialist, Tanana Chiefs Conference, AK
Sue Hollingsworth, Tribal Court Facilitator, Tanana Chiefs Conference, AK

This workshop will describe the unique legal landscape that exists in Alaska today. Special focus will be on the relationship between written and unwritten traditional law. The workshop will provide code drafting tips for protecting culture, traditions and building self esteem through village style youth courts and protecting tribal children through tribal courts.

3-13 Access to Mental Health Service Grants Squi-Aitl

Michele Herman, Project Officer, Child Adolescent Family Branch, Center for Mental Health Services, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration

SAMHSA's Center for Mental Health Services (CMHS) offers a number of grant opportunities to help States and Tribes improve and increase the quality and range of prevention, treatment, rehabilitation, and support services for people with mental health problems, their families, and communities. A general overview of grant programs funded by CMHS will be provided with emphasis on children and family programs. Strategies for designing and writing a competitive grant application will be discussed in addition to any additional information or resources to meet participant questions and needs.

3-14 Youth Courts, Juvenile Code and Working with Court Involved Youth (Tribal Youth Program Grantee Session) Grand Ballroom I

Laura Ansera, Tribal Youth Coordinator, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept of Justice
Michelle Rivard Parks, Associate Deputy Director, Tribal Judicial Institute, School of Law, Univ. of ND

Tribal Youth Courts provide opportunities to build community based and culturally relevant approaches to addressing juvenile delinquency in tribal communities. This session will help define indigenous justice systems and will present the benefits of implementing tribal youth courts. Developing juvenile codes and working with court involved youth will also be discussed.

3-15 Community Engagement and Tribal Council Support (Tribal Youth Program Grantee Session) Grand Ballroom II

Patrick Dunckhorst, Program Manager, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept of Justice
David Raasch, Program Manager, Criminal Justice Center for Innovation, Fox Valley Technical College, WI

After this session, participants will: 1. Be able to identify key resources (community programs, tribal agencies, and local non-tribal agency resources); 2. Identify community leaders, elders, tribal youth, tribal council member/s, educators, law enforcement, courts and others; 3. Learn how to plan and conduct team meetings and use techniques for reaching decisions. 4. Develop a strategy for gaining and maintaining support from tribal council/administration.

Wednesday, June 6, 2007 1:30 pm – 3:00 pm (Cont'd.)

3-16 Boys & Girls Clubs – Community Wellness Programs for Children and Youth

Grand Ballroom III

Michael Guilfoyle, Juvenile Justice Specialist, FirstPic, Inc., MD

Amy Staubs, Project Manager, FirstPic, Inc., MD

This session will focus on the various program options offered by Boys & Girls Clubs of America for Native American communities interested in starting or enhancing programs for youth. This session will provide information on implementing community based primary prevention programs for youth, including MethSMART and the Mentoring Children of Prisoners initiative. Over 200 Boys & Girls Clubs currently exist in Indian Country, serving more than 140,000 young people. Visit www.naclubs.org for more information about these programs and other special initiatives.

3-17 Effective Management Strategies & Securing Resources Tribal Courts Assistance Program Grantee Session Little Skookum Ballroom A & B

Melissa Johnson, Administrative Assistant, Tribal Judicial Institute, School of Law, Univ. of ND

This session will provide conference participants with tools to more effectively manage their grant under the Tribal Courts Assistance Program. It will include information on the procedures that tribes need to use when amending or otherwise modifying their projects, contact and resource information for assistance with grants management, and a road map for navigating federal reporting requirements.

Cyber Lab – Computers and Grants.gov Registration and Hands-On Training - Open Lab/ Walk In

Skookum Creek Event Center Lobby

Christopher Smith, Training Coordinator, Office of the Chief Information Officer, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Dept. of Justice

3:00 pm – 3:15 pm Break (Sessions will continue in the Skookum Creek Event Center after the break)

3:15 pm – 4:45 pm General Assembly

Skookum Creek Event Center

Summary, Report Out and Closing Comments

Moderators:

Judge Richard Blake, Chief Judge, Hoopa Valley Court, CA; Board of Director, National American Indian Court Judges Association

Valerie Jordan, Tribal Specialist, Division of Policy Coordination, Office of Policy, Planning and Budget, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services

Presenters:

Fawn R. Sharp, President, Quinault Indian Nation, WA

Joseph Little, Associate Director, Division of Tribal Courts, Office of Justice Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Dept. of the Interior

Eric Broderick, D.D.S., M.P.H, Acting Administrator, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration;

Assistant Surgeon General, U.S. Public Health Services, U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services

Eugenia Tyner-Dawson, Senior Advisor to the Assistant Attorney General for Tribal Affairs; Executive Director, Justice Programs Council on Native American Affairs, Office of Justice Programs, Office of the Assistant Attorney General, U.S. Dept. of Justice

4:45 pm Session Adjourn