

COLLEEN A. CONRY

Ms. Conry is a Senior Litigation Counsel in the Fraud Section of the Criminal Division, where she has prosecuted a variety of securities fraud cases, including the recent successful prosecution of four former executives of Enterasys Networks. Before joining the Criminal Division, Ms. Conry defended the United States in a series of cases involving financial institutions as a trial attorney in the Civil Division of the Department of Justice. Ms. Conry practiced law at a national law firm after graduating from Boston College Law School. Ms. Conry also worked as an auditor for three years with what is now a Big Four accounting firm following her graduation from Ohio State University.

1980-84	Ohio State University
1984-87	Ernst & Whinney (now Ernst & Young)
1987-90	Boston College Law School
1990-96	Squire Sanders & Dempsey
1996-2004	Civil Division, Department of Justice
2004-Present	Criminal Division, Department of Justice