CARROLL MAN SENTENCED ON FEDERAL DRUG CHARGES

DES MOINES, IA – On October 18, 2011, Duane Russell Conroy, age 37, of Carroll, Iowa, was sentenced to 170 months' imprisonment after pleading guilty to possession with intent to distribute more than 5 grams of actual methamphetamine, and more than 50 grams of a mixture of substance containing methamphetamine, announced United States Attorney Nicholas A. Klinefeldt. United States District Court Judge John A. Jarvey also sentenced Conroy to eight years' supervised release following imprisonment.

Conroy admitted that, on November 21, 2010, in Boone, Iowa, he possessed with intent to distribute approximately two ounces of a mixture or substance containing methamphetamine. Conroy, who had four prior state convictions for felony drug offenses, discarded the methamphetamine by throwing it out a car window when he realized he was being followed by law enforcement. Law enforcement recovered the methamphetamine, which was packaged for distribution, and Conroy was taken into custody by the Boone, Iowa, Police Department.

This case was investigated by the Central Iowa Drug Task Force, the Iowa Division of Narcotics Enforcement, and the Boone Police Department, and was prosecuted by the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Iowa.
