POTTAWATTAMIE COUNTY RESIDENT SENTENCED TO 200 MONTHS FOR CONSPIRACY TO DISTRIBUTE METHAMPHETAMINE

COUNCIL BLUFFS, IA- On August 11, 2011, Scott Wendell Dilley, age 44, of Council Bluffs, Iowa, was sentenced to 200 months imprisonment for Conspiracy to Distribute Methamphetamine, announced U.S. Attorney Nicholas A. Klinefeldt. United States District Judge John A. Jarvey also ordered Dilley to serve 120 months for being a Felon in Possession of a Firearm, to be served concurrently with the conspiracy charge, and ordered Dilley to serve a five-year term of supervised release following incarceration.

On March 3, 2011, Dilley entered guilty pleas to the two counts based on evidence that he was distributing methamphetamine, along with four other people, in the Council Bluffs, Iowa area. On March 1, 2010, law enforcement searched Dilley's residence finding distribution quantities of methamphetamine, drug paraphernalia and a loaded Colt .45 caliber pistol. Prior to March 1, 2010, Dilley had been convicted of a felony drug offense.

The investigation was conducted by the Southwest Iowa Narcotics Enforcement Task Force, Iowa State Patrol, Iowa Division of Narcotics Enforcement and the Pottawattamie County Attorney's Office, and was prosecuted by the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Iowa.
