FEDERAL GRAND JURY IN FORT WAYNE RETURNS INDICTMENT

Fort Wayne, IN—The United States Attorney's Office announced that a Grand Jury sitting in Fort Wayne, Indiana, returned the following Indictment on February 22, 2012:

James E. McClurg, 46, of Fort Wayne, Indiana, is charged in a two count Indictment with manufacturing and possession with the intent to distribute a controlled substance on or about February 9, 2012. The Indictment also seeks for the forfeiture of a motorcycle. These charges were filed as the result of an investigation by the Drug Enforcement Administration and the Allen County Police Department. This case has been assigned to and will be prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney Lovita Morris King.

The specific sentence in each case to be imposed upon conviction will be determined by the judge after a consideration of federal sentencing statutes and the Federal Sentencing Guidelines.

The United States Attorney's Office emphasized that an Indictment is merely an allegation and that all persons charged are presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty in court.
