TRENTON – A Hamilton Township, Mercer County, man was sentenced to 360 months in federal prison today for sexually abusing a child over a period of three years and videotaping the acts, Acting U.S. Attorney Ralph J. Marra, Jr., announced.

U.S. District Chief Judge Garrett E. Brown, Jr., also ordered Stanley J. Chojnowski, 40, to serve a term of supervised release for life upon the completion of his prison term.

Chojnowski has been in continuous custody since his arrest on Aug. 28, 2007, by investigators with the Mercer County Prosecutor's Office and detectives with the Hamilton Township Police Department. Chojnowski was later transferred to federal custody after a federal criminal Complaint was signed on Feb. 27, 2008.

On Jan 26, 2009, Chojnowski pleaded guilty before Judge Brown to a one-count Information that charged him with traveling across state lines with the intent to engage in sexual acts with a person under the age of 12.

Chojnowski was a former co-worker of the victim's deceased mother and befriended the surviving family, which included an older brother and grandmother.

At his plea hearing, Chojnowski admitted that beginning as early as July 2004, when the male victim was 6 years old, and continuing through August 2007, he engaged in multiple sexual acts with the child, during which he created visual depictions of the victim engaged in multiple sexual acts.

Chojnowski admitted that on at least three separate occasions, he transported the child across state lines for the purpose of committing sexual acts with the child and videotaping that conduct. Specifically, Chojnowski admitted transporting the victim from New Jersey to New York and Maryland in July 2004 and from New Jersey to Florida in August 2006 with the intent to engage in sexual acts with the victim.

In August 2007, the victim, who had turned 9 years old, disclosed the sexual abuse to family members, according to the Complaint.

Parole has been abolished in the federal system. Defendants who are given custodial terms must serve nearly all that time.

Marra credited Special Agents of the FBI's Newark Field Office's Innocent Images Unit, under the direction of Special Agent in Charge Weysan Dun, in Newark; Investigators with the Mercer County Prosecutor's Office, under the direction of Prosecutor Joseph L. Bocchini, Jr.; and the Hamilton Township Police Department, under the direction of Chief James W. Collins, with the investigation leading to the guilty plea.

The government is represented by Assistant U.S. Attorneys Jacqueline M. Carle and Kevin T. Smith of the U.S. Attorney's Criminal Division in Camden.
