

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA : Criminal No. 10-
 v. : 18 U.S.C. § 666(a)(1)(A)
 : and § 2
 CHARLES V. MANCINI III :

I N F O R M A T I O N

The defendant having waived in open court prosecution by indictment, the United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey charges:

The Defendant

1. At all times relevant to this Information:

(A) Defendant CHARLES V. MANCINI III was a resident of Gloucester County, New Jersey, and served as a volunteer with the New Sharon Fire Company.

(B) From in or about January 2005 to on or about February 2, 2010, defendant CHARLES V. MANCINI III was the President of the New Sharon Fire Company. From in or about February 2007 to on or about February 2, 2010, MANCINI was the Treasurer of the New Sharon Fire Company.

The New Sharon Fire Company,
the Deptford Fire Department and the Township of Deptford

(C) The New Sharon Fire Company was a volunteer fire company, supplemented by career fire personnel, that was part of the Deptford Fire Department, serving Deptford Township in Gloucester County, New Jersey. The Deptford Fire Department was governed by the Deptford Township Fire District - Board of Fire Commissioners, which supplied funds to the New Sharon Fire Company from taxes levied by the Board of Fire Commissioners.

(D) The Deptford Fire Department and the New Sharon Fire Company were departments of Deptford Township, a local government that received federal benefits in excess of $10,000 per year in 2006, 2007, 2008, and 2009, involving grants and other forms of federal funds assistance.

(E) The New Sharon Fire Company had accounts at St. Edmond's Federal Savings Bank in Sewell, New Jersey and Bank of America in Deptford, New Jersey. As President and Treasurer of the New Sharon Fire Company, defendant CHARLES V. MANCINI III had sole signatory authority on the St. Edmond's Federal Savings Bank and Bank of America bank accounts.

Theft From The New Sharon Fire Company

2. In or about March 2006, defendant CHARLES V. MANCINI, without authorization, applied for and obtained a $90,000 line of credit in the name of the New Sharon Fire Company from Bank of America.

3. From on or about September 20, 2006 to on or about November 21, 2008, defendant CHARLES V. MANCINI III had diverted the majority of the funds from the line of credit to his personal use.

4. On or about December 8, 2008, a fire occurred at the New Sharon Fire Company. Shortly thereafter, the New Sharon Fire Company received approximately $448,990 as insurance proceeds to repair the damage to the New Sharon Fire Company. The insurance proceeds were deposited into the New Sharon Fire Company's St. Edmond's Federal Savings Bank account, over which defendant CHARLES V. MANCINI III had sole signatory authority.

5. Between approximately December 11, 2008 and March 4, 2010, defendant CHARLES V. MANCINI III had diverted the majority of the insurance proceeds to his personal use by, among other things, writing checks to himself, other entities over which MANCINI had control or partial control, and other entities, all for MANCINI's personal gain.

6. To conceal the theft and embezzlement of the insurance proceeds from the New Sharon Fire Company, defendant CHARLES V. MANCINI III provided the New Sharon Fire Company members with a false bank statement purportedly from Penn Mutual Bank which made it appear as though the insurance proceeds were on deposit with Penn Mutual Bank.

7. From on or about September 20, 2006 to on or about March 4, 1020, in Gloucester County, in the District of New Jersey and elsewhere, defendant did knowingly and willfully embezzle, steal, obtain by fraud, and otherwise without authority convert to his use, and intentionally misapply more than $5,000 owned by and under the care, custody, and control of the New Sharon Fire Company and the Deptford Fire Department.

In violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 666(a)(1)(A) and Title 18, United States Code, Section 2.
