DEFENDANT WHO FAILED TO UPDATE SEX OFFENDER INFORMATION SENTENCED

Defendant Who Pled Guilty to Travelling from Virginia to Kingston, New York Without Updating His Sex Offender Registration Information Sentenced to 27 Months in Prison

Albany, New York—United States Attorney Richard S. Hartunian and David McNulty, U.S. Marshal for the Northern District of New York, announced that GLYN FRINK, age 40, of Kingston, New York, was sentenced today by the Honorable David N. Hurd in Federal District Court in Utica on his guilty plea to one count of failing to update his New York State sex offender registration information in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2250(a). FRINK was sentenced to 27 months of imprisonment to be followed by a term of supervised release of fifteen years.

On June 3, 2011, FRINK pled guilty and admitted that, in 2004, he was convicted of a sex offense in the Commonwealth of Virginia. FRINK also admitted that, in November 2010, he moved from Virginia to Kingston, New York. FRINK further admitted that he resided in Kingston, New York until the time of his arrest on March 25, 2011. Records from the sex offender registries in Virginia and New York established that FRINK did not update his change of address information in Virginia and did not register as a sex offender in New York.

This case was investigated by the U.S. Marshals Service and the Town of Ulster Police Department.
