DEFENDANT WHO FAILED TO UPDATE SEX OFFENDER INFORMATION PLEADS GUILTY

Defendant Pleads Guilty to Travelling from Pennsylvania to Schenectady, New York Without Updating His Sex Offender Registration Information

Albany, New York—United States Attorney Richard S. Hartunian and David McNulty, U.S. Marshal for the Northern District of New York, announced that MOSES BRADLEY, age 38, of Schenectady, New York, pled guilty today in United States District Court in Albany before District Judge Gary L. Sharpe to one count of failing to update his sex offender registration information.

During the plea proceeding BRADLEY admitted that in 1997 he was convicted of a sex offense in the State of New York. BRADLEY also admitted that in June 2011 he moved from Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania to Schenectady, New York. BRADLEY further admitted that he resided in Schenectady, New York until the time of his arrest on July 13, 2011. Records from the sex offender registries in Pennsylvania and New York established that BRADLEY did not update his change of address information in Pennsylvania and did not register as a sex offender in New York.

Sentencing was scheduled by Judge Sharpe for March 2, 2012, at 9:00 a.m. in U.S. District Court in Albany, New York. BRADLEY faces a maximum penalty of 10 years of imprisonment. BRADLEY was released pending his sentencing.

This case was investigated by the U.S. Marshals Service and the Schenectady Police Department.
