BROADALBIN MAN SENTENCED FOR RECEIVING CHILD PORNOGRAPHY

Defendant Who Received Multiple Still Images and Videos of Child Pornography Sentenced to 63 Months in Prison

Albany, New York — TIMOTHY BREHMER, age 35, of Broadalbin, New York, was sentenced on September 12, 2012 by Chief United States District Court Judge Gary L. Sharpe, in Albany to sixty-three (63) months of imprisonment for receiving child pornography images, announced United States Attorney Richard S. Hartunian and Assistant Special Agent-in-Charge Nick DiNicola of Homeland Security Investigations - Albany. BREHMER, who had entered a guilty plea on June 19, 2012, was also ordered to have no unsupervised contact with minors and to register with the New York State Sex Offender Registry Program.

Between April 2007 and December 5, 2011, BREHMER used the Internet to access various child pornography websites. While accessing some of the child pornography websites, BREHMER downloaded multiple still images and videos of child pornography onto his home computer. In connection with BREHMER's plea of guilty, he has also surrendered his New York State teaching certificate and tendered his resignation of employment with the Ballston Spa Central School District.

This case was investigated by Homeland Security Investigations.
