U.S. Attorney BHARARA stated: "Earlier this year, BARROW and FARRINGTON's alleged armed robbery spree spread fear among the residents of Bronx, Westchester, and Putnam counties. As a result of a tireless pursuit by a task force comprised of the U.S. Attorney's Office and our federal, state, and local law enforcement partners, we believe the people of the Bronx and the Hudson valley can rest a little easier."

Acting Assistant FBI Director VENIZELOS stated, "Movie depictions of bank robbery often romanticize the crime, from 'Bonnie & Clyde' to 'Dog Day Afternoon' to 'Public Enemies.' But in real life, armed bank robbery terrifies employees and customers, and poses the real risk of serious injury or death. Working with our partners, the FBI continues to pay serious attention to this serious crime."

This case is being handled by the Office's White Plains Division. Assistant United States Attorney DOUGLAS B. BLOOM is in charge of the prosecution.

The charges contained in the Indictment are merely accusations, and KARRIEM BARROW is presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty.
