NEW ROCHELLE MAN INDICTED FOR POSSESSION OF ANABOLIC
STERIODS AND ASSAULT ON FEDERAL OFFICERS

LEV L. DASSIN, the Acting United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, announced that an indictment was filed today charging SCOTT SIEGEL with one count of distributing and possessing with intent to distribute anabolic steroids, and two counts of assault on a federal officer. The assault charges are based on allegations that on February 18, 2009, at the time of his arrest SIEGEL used his vehicle to hit a car occupied by law enforcement officers, and attempted to hit another officer with his vehicle.

SIEGEL, 34, of New Rochelle, New York, is scheduled to be arraigned on the Indictment by United States Magistrate Judge GEORGE A. YANTHIS on May 14, 2009, at 2:30 p.m.

If convicted, SIEGEL faces a maximum sentence of 5 years of imprisonment on Count One, 20 years of imprisonment on Count Two, and 20 years of imprisonment on Count Three.

Assistant United States Attorney SARAH R. KRISOFF is in charge of the prosecution.

The charges and allegations contained in the Indictment are merely accusations, and the defendant is presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty.
