NEWS RELEASE

Charles Lefebvre was charged today by Indictment¹ with possession of child pornography, announced United States Attorney Zane David Memeger. The indictment alleges that Lefebvre possessed three computer hard drives containing images of minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct.

INFORMATION REGARDING THE DEFENDANT

NAME	ADDRESS	AGE OR YEAR OF BIRTH
Charles Lefebvre	formerly of Rockledge, PA	age 27

If convicted, the defendant faces a maximum possible sentence of 10 years imprisonment, followed by up to lifetime supervised release, and a fine of $250,000.

This case was brought as part of Project Safe Childhood, a nationwide initiative to combat the growing epidemic of child sexual exploitation and abuse launched in May 2006 by the Department of Justice. Led by United States Attorneys' Offices and the Criminal Division's Child Exploitation and Obscenity Section (CEOS), Project Safe Childhood marshals federal, state and local resources to better locate, apprehend and prosecute individuals who exploit children via the Internet, as well as to identify and rescue victims.
