NEWS RELEASE

Today, Norman LeBoon pled guilty before the Honorable John R. Padova, United States District Judge, to the charges contained in an information filed by the United States Attorney's Office, charging him with threatening an official of the United States, and with transmitting in interstate commerce a threatening communication, announced United States Attorney Zane David Memeger. These charges arose from defendant's production and transmission of a YouTube video over the internet on March 26, 2010, containing a threat to injure and kill United States Congressman Eric Cantor (7th District Virginia) and a member of his family.

According to an affidavit in support of the warrant for LeBoon's arrest issued on March 28, 2010, LeBoon transmitted a video over the internet on YouTube, in which he stated:

"My Congressman Eric Cantor, and you and your cupcake evil wife..." "Remember Eric...our judgment time, the final Yom Kippur has been given. You are a liar, you're a Lucifer, you're a pig, a greedy fucking pig, you're an abomination, you receive my bullets in your office, remember they will be placed in your heads. You and your children are Lucifer's abominations."

Following his arrest, LeBoon told federal agents that Eric Cantor is "pure evil"; will be dead"; and that "Cantor's family is suffering because of his father's wrath."
