NEWS RELEASE

Brent Rehrig was charged today by Indictment with wire fraud announced United States Attorney Zane D. Memeger. According to the Indictment, Rehrig, in 2008, devised a scheme to defraud his employer, Janney Montgomery Scott, and Verizon Wireless, out of money and property while employed as a technician for Janney Montgomery Scott. Rehrig, unknown to his employer, ordered a greater number of Blackberries phones than was needed by Janney Montgomery Scott. Rehrig sold some of the Blackberry to third parties and kept the money from the sale thereby causing a loss to Janney and Verizon of approximately $620,000.
