PLEA AGREEMENT

Pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(C) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, the United States and Defendant, Luigi Manocchio have reached the following agreement:

1. Defendant’s Obligations.

a. Defendant will plead guilty to Count One of the Second Superseding Indictment, which charges Defendant with conspiracy to participate in a racketeering enterprise, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1962(d).

2. Government’s Obligations. In exchange for Defendant's plea of guilty:

a. If Defendant enters a plea of guilty to Count One of the Second Superseding Indictment, the government has agreed to recommend a sentence at the mid point of the applicable guideline range of the United States Sentencing Guidelines (the “guidelines” or U.S.S.G.).

b. For purposes of determining the offense level, the government agrees to recommend a two-level reduction in the offense level for acceptance of responsibility under § 3E1.1(a) of the guidelines if Defendant continues to demonstrate acceptance of responsibility through sentencing.

c. As of the date of this agreement, Defendant has timely notified authorities of an intention to enter a plea of guilty. If the offense level is 16 or greater and Defendant enters a plea of guilty pursuant to this agreement, the government will move the sentencing Court for an additional decrease of one level, pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1(b), unless Defendant indicates an intention not to enter a plea of guilty, thereby requiring the government to prepare for trial.

d. The government is free to recommend any combination of supervised release, fines, and restitution which it deems appropriate.

e. The government will, at the time of sentencing, move to dismiss Count Two, conspiracy to violate the Hobbs Act (extortion) and Count Three of the Indictment, Hobbs Act (extortion).

3. Pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(C), the United States and defendant stipulate and agree to the following facts and particular provisions and applications of the sentencing guidelines:

a. Defendant admits that he was a member of the enterprise charged in the Second Superseding Indictment during the time of the conspiracy and agreed to the multiple acts of extortion as alleged in the Indictment. More specifically, defendant knowingly assisted in the charged racketeering conspiracy by his involvement in the oversight and receipt of monthly protection payments, paid in cash by the owners and operators of certain adult entertainment businesses in Rhode Island including, but not limited to, the strip clubs known as the Satin Doll and Cadillac Lounge.

Defendant through his leadership role in the enterprise oversaw and continued a protection scheme initiated by the enterprise in approximately 1992. As the Defendant's underlying racketeering activity in this case involved extortion as defined in the guidelines, the relevant base offense level is 18, pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 2B3.2(a) and U.S.S.G. §§ 2E1.1(a)(1) and (2); and U.S.S.G. § 2E1.1 Application Note 1. The offense conduct of the enterprise involved implied threats of death or bodily injury, and thus a two-level increase is appropriate, pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 2B3.2(b)(1), making the resulting offense level 20.

- c. Pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 2B3.2(b)(2), the extortion conduct resulted in a loss to the victims of the extortion. The loss attributable to this defendant exceeds $800,000 but is not more than $1,500,000, resulting in a four-level increase pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 2B3.1(b)(7)(F). The resulting offense level is 24.
- d. The parties further stipulate that pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 3B1.1(a), Defendant was an organizer or leader of the criminal activity in this case, and that the criminal activity involved five or more participants or was otherwise extensive. These participants include other members and associates of the enterprise named and unnamed in the indictment. Based upon Defendant's role in the offense, his offense level would be increased by four levels, and the resulting total offense level would be level 28.

4. The parties agree that provided defendant accepts responsibility for the offense and is awarded a three level reduction for acceptance of responsibility, the total offense level in this case will be a level 25. Based upon these agreed to stipulated facts and application of the sentencing guidelines, the parties further agree that pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(C), an offense level of 25 and Criminal History II is the appropriate disposition of this case. Accordingly, pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(C), defendant's range of imprisonment will be 63-78 months, plus any lawful fine imposed by the Court, lawful term of supervised release and special assessment.

5. Consistent with Rule 11(c)(1)(C), the Court may accept the plea agreement or reject the plea agreement. In the event the Court rejects this plea agreement, either party may elect to declare the agreement null and void. In such an event, the defendant may withdraw his plea pursuant to the provisions of Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(5).

6. Defendant further agrees that there is no basis to seek a downward departure or variance from the agreed to advisory guideline range of 63 to 78 months. Additionally, Defendant explicitly agrees that a sentence within the applicable guideline range is reasonable under 18 U.S.C. § 3553.

7. The maximum statutory penalties for the offense to which Defendant is pleading are as follows:

- a. 20 years' imprisonment;
- b. A fine of $ 250,000;
- c. A term of supervised release not to exceed 3 years; and
- d. A mandatory special assessment of $100.

8. Defendant agrees that, after he and Defendant's counsel sign this agreement, counsel will return it to the United States Attorney's Office along with a money order or certified check, payable to the Clerk, United States District Court, in payment of the special assessments. Failure to do so, unless the Court has made a previous finding of indigence, will relieve the government of its obligation to recommend a reduction in the offense level under the guidelines for acceptance of responsibility.

9. Defendant is advised and understands that:
 - a. The government has the right, in a prosecution for perjury or making a false statement, to use against Defendant any statement that Defendant gives under oath;
 - b. Defendant has the right to plead not guilty, or having already so pleaded, to persist in that plea;
 - c. Defendant has the right to a jury trial;
 - d. Defendant has the right to be represented by counsel – and if necessary have the Court appoint counsel – at trial and every other stage of the proceeding;
 - e. Defendant has the right at trial to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses, to be protected from self-incrimination, to testify and present evidence, and to compel the attendance of witnesses; and
 - f. Defendant waives these trial rights if the Court accepts a plea of guilty.

10. The government reserves its full right of allocution, including the right to present any information to the Court for its consideration in fashioning an appropriate sentence, the right to correct misstatements, misrepresentations, or omissions by Defendant, and to answer any questions asked by the Court.

11. Defendant hereby waives his right to appeal the conviction and sentence imposed by the Court, if the sentence imposed by the Court is within or below the sentencing guideline range of 63 to 78 months. This agreement does not affect the rights or obligations of the United States as set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3742(b), and the government retains its right to appeal any of the Court's sentencing determinations.

12. This agreement is binding on the government only if Defendant pleads guilty, fulfills all his obligations under the agreement, does not engage in any conduct constituting obstruction of justice under § 3C1.1 of the guidelines, and does not commit any new offenses. Defendant understands that if he violates this agreement in any way, the government shall be released from its obligations under the agreement and will be free to make any recommendations that it deems appropriate. If that occurs, Defendant shall not have the right to withdraw his guilty plea.

13. This agreement is limited to the District of Rhode Island and does not bind any other federal, state, or local prosecutive authorities.

14. This agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties. No other promises or inducements have been made concerning the plea in this case. Defendant acknowledges that no person has, directly or indirectly, threatened or coerced Defendant to enter this agreement. Any additions, deletions, or modifications to this agreement must be made in writing and signed by all the parties in order to be effective.

15. Counsel for Defendant states that Counsel has read this agreement, been given a copy of it for Counsel's file, explained it to his client, and states that to the best of Counsel's knowledge and belief, his client understands the agreement.

16. Defendant states that he has read the agreement or has had it read to him, has discussed it with his Counsel, understands it, and agrees to its provisions.
