UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

V.

SUPERIOR CRUDE GATHERING, INC.,

Defendant.

Civil Action No.

Judge

CONSENT DECREE

Plaintiff, the United States of America, on behalf of the United States Environmental Protection Agency (“EPA”), filed a Complaint against Defendant, Superior Crude Gathering, Inc., contemporaneously with the lodging of this Consent Decree. The Complaint seeks civil penalties against Defendant and alleges that Defendant is civilly liable for violation of Section 311(b)(3) of the Clean Water Act (“CWA” or “the Act”), 33 U.S.C. § 1321(b)(3), and for the failure to comply with regulations issued under Section 311(j) of the Act. The Complaint addresses Defendant’s unlawful discharge of harmful quantities of oil from Defendant’s storage tanks, located at the former Falcon Refinery in Ingleside, San Patricio County, Texas, into waters of the United States or adjoining shorelines and the failure to comply with spill prevention and planning regulations at the storage tank facility.

Defendant represents that it has (a) cleaned up the oil spill, (b) repaired or taken out of service the damaged storage tanks, (c) repaired the secondary containment areas, and (d) ceased its operations at the facility.

Defendant does not admit any fact or liability to the United States arising out of the occurrences alleged in the Complaint.

The Parties recognize, and the Court by entering this Consent Decree finds, that this Consent Decree has been negotiated by the Parties in good faith and will avoid litigation between the Parties on the claims addressed in the Consent Decree, and that this Consent Decree is fair, reasonable, and in the public interest.

NOW, THEREFORE, before taking testimony and without adjudication or admission of any issue of fact or law, or liability, except as provided above and in Section I, below, and with the consent of the Parties, IT IS HEREBY ADJUDGED, ORDERED, AND DECREED as follows:

I. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

The Court has personal jurisdiction over the Parties to this Consent Decree.

2. Venue lies in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 and 1395 because the claim arose in this district and Defendant is located and doing business in this district.

Nothing in this Paragraph shall be construed to limit the United States from seeking any remedy otherwise provided by law for Defendant's failure to pay any stipulated penalties.

18. Subject to the provisions of Section VI of this Consent Decree (Effect of Settlement/Reservation of Rights), the stipulated penalties provided for in this Consent Decree shall be in addition to any other rights, remedies, or sanctions available to the United States for Defendant's violation of this Consent Decree or applicable law.

VI. EFFECT OF SETTLEMENT/RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

19. This Consent Decree resolves the civil penalty claim of the United States for the violations alleged in the Complaint filed in this action.

20. The United States reserves all legal and equitable remedies available to enforce the provisions of this Consent Decree, except as expressly stated in Paragraph 19.

21. The United States reserves all legal and equitable claims for, including but not limited to, injunctive relief, response and removal costs, expenses, damages including natural resource damages, criminal liability, and other appropriate relief, except as expressly stated in Paragraph 19. This Consent Decree shall not be construed to limit the rights of the United States to obtain additional relief under any federal law, implementing regulations of federal law, or permit conditions, except as expressly specified in this Consent Decree.

22. In any subsequent administrative or judicial proceeding initiated by the United States for injunctive relief, civil penalties, response or removal costs, expenses, damages including natural resource damages, criminal liability, or other appropriate relief relating to the Facility or Defendant's violations alleged in the Complaint, Defendant shall not assert, and may not maintain, any defense or claim based upon the principles of waiver, res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, claim-splitting, or other defenses based upon any Defendant reserves any and all defenses or claims not specifically addressed in this Section.

23. This Consent Decree is not a permit, or a modification of any permit, under any federal, state, or local laws or regulations. Defendant is responsible for achieving and maintaining complete compliance with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, orders, and permits. Defendant's compliance with this Consent Decree shall be no defense to any action commenced pursuant to said laws, regulations, orders, or permits, except as set forth herein. The United States does not, by its consent to the entry of this Decree, warrant or aver in any manner that Defendant's compliance with any aspect of this Consent Decree will result in compliance with provisions of the CWA or with any other provisions of federal, state, or local laws, regulations, orders, or permits.

24. This Consent Decree does not limit or affect the rights of Defendant or of the United States against any third parties that are not party to this Consent Decree, nor does it limit the rights of third parties that are not party to this Consent Decree against Defendant, except as otherwise provided by law, including but not limited to 33 U.S.C. § 1365(b)(1)(B) and 42 U.S.C. § 7604(b)(1)(B). This Consent Decree shall not be construed to create rights in, or grant any cause of action to, any third party not party to this Consent Decree.

25. Defendant hereby covenants not to sue and agrees not to assert any claims related to the Discharge, or response activities in connection with the Discharge, against the United States pursuant to the CWA, OPA, or any other federal law or regulation for acts or omissions through the date of lodging of the Consent Decree. Defendant further covenants not to sue and agrees not to assert any direct or indirect claim for reimbursement from the Oil Spill Liability Trust Fund or pursuant to any other provision of law.
