Hello Commissioners:

Thank you again your time, effort, and engagement in conducting the work of the Commission. Last week's panels were informative and presented first-hand looks at effective approaches and programs, and expert perspectives on what else is needed to address crime in our nation's communities. About 130 Commissioners, working group members, press, and staff participated in each call, which was the highest attendance for in-person and remote President's Commission hearings. Your leadership and continued commitment is to be applauded, and is greatly appreciated by us all.

Each of you should have received an Outlook invitation to participate in the teleconference panels related to the Crime Reduction panels this Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. Tomorrow's panel information is as follows:

Tuesday, April 14th, Hearing 2:00 pm to 3:00 pm, Eastern Time – Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Panel

- Matthew Gamette, Director of Forensic Services, Idaho State Police
- Kim Garrett, CEO, Palomar, Oklahoma City's Family Justice Center
- Richard Hertel, Prosecutor, Ripley County, IN
- Robert Hawkins, Chief of Police, Muscogee Creek Nation

Also attached is an updated agenda, witness bios, and testimony that has been received thus far. As available, all hearing summaries, transcripts, and testimony are updated and maintained on the Commission webpage on the Department of Justice website, and can be accessed at <https://www.justice.gov/ag/presidential-commission-law-enforcement-and-administration-justice/hearings>.

We hope you all will be able to make the effort to join these calls, and thanks once again for all your contributions.

Sincerely,

Phil Keith, Chair
