

CBS in The Wall Street Journal on July 1, 2002 and July 2, 2002, and in Advertising Age on July 1, 2002 and July 8, 2002, and by the United States in the Federal Register on July 8, 2002. The United States did not receive any comments during the 60-day comment period.

Now, therefore, it is ORDERED as follows:

1. This Court has jurisdiction to modify the Final Judgment under Section XII of the Final Judgment and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(5).

2. CBS is relieved of its obligation under the Final Judgment to divest either the New York City Subway Business or the New York City Bus Shelter Business, and paragraph IV.B of the Final Judgment is accordingly stricken.

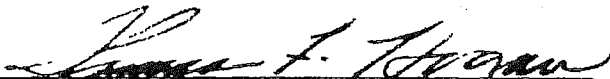

3. CBS is directed to divest the New York City Telephone Kiosk Business to an acquirer acceptable to the United States within 30 days after notice of the entry of this Order. During that 30-day period, the Trustee will continue to monitor CBS's efforts to divest the business. CBS will continue to advise the Trustee regarding contacts and negotiations with potential purchasers and grant the Trustee access to any necessary personnel, books, records, and facilities, subject to any applicable privileges. In the event that CBS has not divested the New York City Telephone Kiosk Business within the 30-day period specified above, the Trustee will effect the divestiture in accordance with (and subject to) the terms of the Final Judgment, as modified.

4. For purposes of this Order, "New York City Telephone Kiosk Business" means the business of Viacom Outdoor Group, a division of Infinity Broadcasting Corporation, of selling advertising on displays located on telephone enclosures in New York City. The New York City Telephone Kiosk Business includes all tangible and intangible assets used in the sale of advertising on each of the display faces described above including, but not limited to, any real property (owned or leased) except for any office facilities; any licenses, permits and authorizations issued by any governmental organization relating to the operation of the display faces; any contracts, agreements, leases, licenses, commitments and understandings with the telephone companies that own the telephone kiosks; any contracts pertaining to the sale of advertising on those display faces; any applicable customer lists, promotional materials, logs, and records pertaining to the sale of advertising on those display faces, and any applicable maps or other documents depicting the location of those display faces.

5. Entry of this Order modifying the Final Judgment is in the public interest.

DONE, this 20 day of September, 2002.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE